S. S. Convention

South York S. S. ass'n held a very successful convention in Maple Methodist Church last Wednesday and Thursday 23rd and 24th November, a full programme had been arranged for and was carried out under President Edgar Bowen of Weston. The addresses were of a very high order, the conferences helpful and devotional periods were very uplifting.

The entire sessions of the two days were inspiring to all Sunday School workers, and felt it had been good to be there.

The closing address by Prof. J. A. Farmer of McMaster University on "The Bible" was listened to with rapt attention as he showed how it had come down in its present form. This was illustrated with lantern slides which depicted early Greek, Hebrew Syriac manuscripts which have been discovered in various places in the East. A unanimous vote of thanks was tendered to the speakers.

Four churches joined in the free and generous hospitality to visitors and delegates, Maple Methodist, Sherwood Lutheran and St. Andrew's and St. Paul's Presbyterian. The convention closed with the National Anthem.

Fraternal Visit

Hillcrest Lodge, 409, I. O. O. F. held a very enjoyable evening on November 8th., when Riverdale Lodge of Toronto paid them a fraternal visit and conferred the First Degree in an excellent manner on a class of candidates. Representatives from all parts of the District were present and a good programme was provided, consisting of songs, speeches and luncheon. The visitors went home feeling that it was good to fraternize with the members of Hillcrest Lodge.
