

Dry slabs, stove length, at The Elevator.

Many foreign countries are clamoring for Tanlac. Its fame is world-wide. It is sold at Sloans Drug Store.

Good shipment of bran and shorts; also a good supply of maize-gluten at a reduction in price at The Elevator.

Have you visited the pool room at the Elgin Mills Hotel yet. Ernie is sure making things hum up there. We would be pleased to see you anytime you have a few minutes to spare. 21-25

"We have sold 97,000 bottles of Tanlac and have never had a single complaint."—Jacobs' Pharmacy, Atlanta, Ga. Sold by Sloans Drug Store.

The ladies of the Methodist Church are holding a sale of home made baking and candies in Trench's (vacant) store on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Proceeds in aid of "The Willmott Missionary Fund."

A number of the brethren of Richmond Lodge accompanied R. W. Bro. Dunlop, D. D. G. M. on his official visit to Rising Sun Lodge, Aurora, Friday evening, and were royally entertained by the home Lodge.

Although the county police have been searching for the chicken thieves who stole about 40 fowl from Mr. Harry Hammond's chicken pen more than a week ago, the midnight prowlers are still at large.

It is astonishing how quickly Tanlac will produce results. You usually feel better from the very first dose. It is sold at Sloans Drug Store.

The Womens Institute will hold their Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. W. Cook on Wednesday, Dec. 14th at 3 o'clock. Mrs. H. Edean will give a paper on Christmas. Reading by Miss O. Wright. Instrumental solo, Miss Jessie Comisky. Roll call Christmas Quotation.

Richmond Hill was quiet for an election day on Tuesday, and the vote polled was not large. At six o'clock when the ballots were counted the vote for the three candidates was as follows:

Alex. Macgregor 143
W. F. Maclean 129
R. H. Palmer 100

The Ladies of the W. A. of St. Mary's Anglican Church will hold a Sale of Work, Consisting of Fancy and useful articles, suitable for the Festive Season in the Masonic Hall, on the afternoon and evening of Wednesday, December 14, 1921. A dainty supper consisting of Cold Meats, Salads, Etc. will be served from 5 to 8 p. m. Adults 40 cents; children 25 cents.

Learn a trade and don't be satisfied until you have mastered the details and are able to prove you are a specialist at your job. One trouble to-day is that short cuts are taken to shorten the apprenticeships, and the result often is a "batch" turned out instead of a workman. The same is often true of school and college life; anything to get in the prescribed time and, as a result it is often a poor stab that is made at the examination tests. You can't grow an oak on mushroom principles.—Exchange.

Mr. Wm. C. Ruttan

Has started a singing class in Mrs. N. Batty's home, Arnold St. Richmond Hill, and will be here every Monday. Mr. Ruttan will be pleased to have a call from any person interested, or arrangements may be made by phone, No. 22 r 11. 21-27

Carnival of Seasons

The Carnival of Seasons, in the Masonic Hall Friday and Saturday, in behalf of St. Mary's and St. Luke's Parish House, was a very pleasing and successful affair. In the booths Mrs. Rame was the convener of Spring; Mrs. Cosgrove, Summer; Mrs. Tynett, Autumn, and Mrs. Greene, Winter. Mrs. Gibbons had charge of the Santa Claus booth. Everybody enjoyed the oyster supper Friday evening and the fowl supper Saturday evening. The tableau, "Lest We Forget," by Lieut. Morden's Cadets, was particularly fine, and Mr. C. A. Rowe sustained his reputation as an entertainer. Miss McDonald, of Toronto, gave an exhibition of step-dancing, and Friday evening many participated in the social dance, with music by Miss Seager.

1921 Xmas Seals

MUSKOKA FREE HOSPITAL
CONSUMPTIVES

Much thought has been given to the production of a very attractive Xmas Seal for the Muskoka Hospital this year. As usual old Santa is the predominating feature—lithographed in Xmas reds and greens, it should prove an easy seller.

Every boy and girl of school age has a supply of these Seals for sale; as has also your bank.

Buy them freely—Every dollar they bring is devoted to the maintenance of needy patients. Contributions may be sent to Hon. W. A. Charlton 223 College Street, Toronto.

Fifty-Fifty

A man advertised "Rabbit Sausage" and a food inspector called him up.
"What is this rabbit sausage?"
"Why just what the name says—'rabbit sausage.'"
"Don't you use anything but rabbit?"
"Yes."
"What?"
"Horse."
"In what proportions?"
"Fifty-fifty."
"What do you mean by that?"
"Just what I say; everybody knows what fifty-fifty means."
"You mean just as much rabbit meat as horse meat?"
"No! One rabbit to one horse."

When the Landlord Raised the Rent

"I never do have any fun," complained a young girl petulantly.
"Come with me, and I'll cure your discontent," suggested a visiting nurse of the National Sanitarium Association.
They visited a humble little home. The mother was struggling to support the three children, while her husband was fighting tuberculosis at the Muskoka Hospital for Consumptives.
Life was not rosy. It became tragic when the rent was doubled. Hopeless despair looked from her brown eyes. Three pairs of childish eyes watching, sensed something to make even baby lips quiver.
"But there," with a smile, and the babies smiled too, "I musn't complain. He's getting better anyway. He writes it's wonderful up there—it's saved his life." And the brown eyes were a prayer.
"I've just got to help," exclaimed an enthusiastic young person as she and the nurse walked down the road. Contributions may be sent to Hon. W. A. Charlton 223 College Street, Toronto.
