York Ranger Cadets

The Ben Hokea Recital held in the Masonic Hall under the auspices of the Cadet Corps on Monday evening last, was an event to be remembered by all privileged to get seating accommodation. Ben Hokea and his company were in splendid form, and the distinguished Hawaiian artist of the evening scored a triumph. His emotional rendering of the favorite southern ballads, his touch of the religious in the old familiar hymns sung by grandmother, swayed his audience, while that refreshing breezy rhythm of the modern one step and fox-trot music, carried the audience into the heights of delightful forgetfulness of life's daily perplexing worries.

The Recital was followed by a dance, which ended sharply at midnight and an event delightful in memory to recall by all attending.

The stage decorations were beautifully artistic, due to the untiring efforts of Mr. Harry Stirling and Miss Moyle. Mrs. McLatchy providing the decorative therefor, as also Mrs. Stirling and Mrs. Nichols.

The visiting company were entertained to supper by Mr. and Mrs. Mylks.

The O. C. his officers, the N. C. O's and cadets, gratefully express to the citizens their appreciation of their loyal support.

Ben Hokea is now forming a class, Cadets Clarence Mylks, Jack Glass, Stanley Ransom and Ernest Dickinson being already his pupils. The Cadet Quartette received an ovation when they appeared and the O. C. records their part with pride.

Recital proceeds will be published next week, this fund required for the equipping of the corps with hockey outfit.
