HOCKEY NEWS

LOCAL SENIORS WON

Yes, the "big noise" is over. It happened at the local rink on Friday evening last. It was a welcome sound to the large number of local spectators present, for it was the first time in the last fourteen years that the Richmond Hill boys won from the neighboring team representing Thornhill, either on their own ice or that of their neighbor. It was quite natural that Richmond Hill fans should give vent to their pent-up feelings, and they did so in no uncertain manner at the conclusion of the game. No; the game was in no way a walk-away for the locals; they had to be "in the game" every minute of playing time, for their opponents were bent upon keeping the chain of victories unbroken, and they fought hard and valiantly every foot of the way, but the locals never weakened once—they were in tip-top form on this occasion, every man of them. The first period ended 2-1 in favor of the locals; there was no score in the second period, and both teams found the nets once each in the final period, the final score being 3-2 in favor of the locals. There was not a dull moment throughout the entire match. There was a tendency towards "rough stuff" on one or two occasions, but these were promptly nipped in the bud by the referee handling the game, and, by the way, this same referee knew his business, and knew it well—too bad there are not more like him in these hereabouts.

Below will be found a list of players on both teams on this occasion:

Richmond Hill—
Baldwin Ransom.
Bert Cook.
Charlie Cowie.
Kenneth Blanchard.
Jack Glass.
Groves.
Frank Grainger.
And that dependable junior, Allan Armstrong, was also on hand to do his "bit" if called upon, but that did not prove necessary.

Thornhill—
Harvey Gibbs.
Charles Wiltshire.
Stuart Page.
Neil McDonald.
George Watt.
S. Jackson.
George Bryant.
George Findlay.

The game was one of the cleanest ever played on the local ice; it had to be with a proper referee handling the game the way it should be handled. Quite true—there were a few casualties on both sides, but none of them serious; these were the result of close checking, and not by deliberate dirty work on the part of the players. Kenny Blanchard was among the list of injured, and is today carrying a swollen and marked left cheek, with a distinguishable black mark under the eye, but, because of this, he is not seeing "red," and this same boy never played faster hockey in his life than he did on Friday night last, and in saying this it does not detract one iota of credit from any one player on the team for his full share of glory in the win of the evening.

The writer does not believe that any member of the Thornhill team has his mind made up to "get" any Richmond Hill player as a result of their loss on Friday evening—he believes they can lose a game with just as good grace as other teams. BUT—(there's that word again)—it is sometimes different with the followers of a team; they think that every injury received by a player was the direct result of premeditation on the part of opponents, and harbor feelings which are not the marks of true sports.

Whether or not the Richmond Hill team is the better of the two teams is not now in argument, but the locals unmistakably proved themselves the better of the two on Friday evening last.

The return game will be played at Thornhill on Thursday evening of next week. The local seniors are very much in the running for the championship this year, having lost one game up to this writing, and because of this the wearing of "white feathers" and sham sicknesses on the part of any player or players of the Richmond Hill team on Thursday next will be tabooed by the general public. The team for Thornhill should be the strongest possible. Special cars will be run on that occasion so that all may have an opportunity of seeing these two teams in action once more before the winter season comes to a close.

SENIOR CADETS WON

St. Pats, Canadiens, Ottawa, and Hamilton teams have their "on and off" nights now and again. And so it was with our Senior Cadets on Tuesday evening—they were far from their usual brilliant form. Their opponents on this occasion wore the Thornhill Juniors—a powerful-looking lot of youngsters. The Cadets were able to put it over this same team on Thornhill ice to the tune of 12-2, but on this occasion, upon their own ice, they had to be satisfied with a score of 7-3, but they won, and that's the main thing these days. As with the Seniors, so with the Senior Cadets—they have lost but one game this winter. The first two periods of Tuesday night's game were the most ragged seen here this winter, with hardly a semblance of hockey in either period; in fact, some of the spectators likened it unto golf, minus the holes, but yours truly never saw a better game of old-time shinny, not even in that game's palmy days—it was slash here and slash there, and so on, etc. The last period was more interesting; the Cadets seemed to find themselves again, and gave a splendid demonstration of combination play. To the Cadets' goalkeeper goes the greatest credit for the win; while the rest of the team was

"off color" he was right "on" and saved the nets time and time again.

Neil McDonald, of Thornhill, handled the game satisfactorily to all.
Senior Cadets—C. Harding, C. Mylks, W. Charles, F. Gainger, J. Glass, A. Armstrong, W. Batty, A. Harding.
Thornhill Juniors—H. Thornhillson, A. Jack, W. Dean, W. Knapton, B. White, A. Clapman, H. Knapton, J. Wiltshire, C. Simpson.

STRAY SHOTS

Coach Charlie Roe is again able to be around. Perhaps his absence by confinement to the house effected the Cadets on Tuesday evening.

Baldwin Ransom took care of the nets on Friday evening, notwithstanding the fact that he had his nose broken two nights before when practicing at the rink.
