Church, are having a Birthday party.
Full particulars next week.

Mrs. Susan Morgan, wife of Mr.
Wm. Welsh, who died suddenly at her home in Thornhill, was interred in the Richmond Hill Cemetery on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Stephen wish to thank all the friends, known and unknown who so quickly and willingly came to their assistance when the barns caught fire on Wednesday, March 8th, 1922.

chase a lantern for the schools.

The firemen were out Saturday afternoon testing the hose the first time since turning on the water from the water works. A good stream was thrown on the roof of the public school building, but as the hose is old they did not like to risk the full pressure.

If you suffer from biliousness, constipation, headache, nervousness, sallow complexion, loss of appetite, bad taste in mouth, Taulac and Taulac Vegetable Pills will certainly straighten you out. It is sold at Sloan's Drug Store.

Miss E. G. Barker will have a formal display of millinery at her show rooms, Thornhill, the last three days of this week. Former openings have attracted many ladies of good taste and this year's promises to be more attractive than ever before. See adv. on this page.

Ladies are fortunate in having in the Village a Milliner who is able to produce the confections in Millinery such as are being exhibited by Mrs. Wm.
Davies in a perfectly arranged show room which must be seen to be described and appreciated. See adv. elsewhere in this paper.

All citizens interested in making the village attractive are invited next Tuesday evening to the School Room of the Methodist church, to hear Mr.
T. D. Dockray, give an illustrated address on "Improvement of the Home Premises." This topic is up-to-date as spring clean-up is ahead.

Mrs. Wm. Williams and Mrs.
John Tyndall, of Toronto, were the guests of Mrs. Alex. Patterson, the former's sisters-in-law, during the past week.

Recital and Tea

Miss Alexina Morsen L. T. C. M. entertained her Music Club at her home "Dentmor Downs," Jefferson, Yonge St. last Saturday afternoon, at a Recital and tea in honor of her Junior pupils and their mothers.

Those taking part in the programme were the Misses Martha Johnston, Beth Gamble, Dorothy Chatterley, Mary Clarke, Mary Hillary and Esther Clarke.

Miss Pearson gave an unusually interesting account of incidents in the life of Beethoven, and by way of variety Mrs. Reading gave a delightful "travel talk" on her recent motor trip in California. Miss Helen Page of Toronto, a week-end guest, contributed much toward the pleasure of the occasion by her humorous readings, and the hostess completed the programme by singing a group of songs, after which tea was served.

ELLIOTT Business College

Yonge and Charles Sts. Toronto, is strictly first class in all Departments and unexcelled in the Dominion. A sound business education is a sure steppingstone to success, but the imitation kind is not. Why not investigate the subject? We will gladly send you our large catalogue which contains complete information. For your sake send for it to-day. Students admitted at any time. Our graduates are eminently successful.

Another Word to the Ladies

Our business having been established upon the recommendation of Ladies of the Village and Vicinity, for whom we have made each succeeding season, we have not hitherto advertised, but the result of the Announcement of our Spring Opening last Saturday, both in the number of visitors and the orders we received, far exceeded our expectations.

Most of the Models, shown for the first time, were sold, but we are making daily, and next Saturday we shall be prepared with an added range of Millinery which you have the assurance will be new and up-to-date.

To the Ladies of discriminating taste may we say, acquired by experience, we are thoroughly conversant with every phase of the Milliners' Art, and cordially invite you to visit our New Millinery Parlor, when we shall be pleased to submit our Latest Creations for your inspection, approval, and comparison.

The Farmer's Partner

A Bank, like an individual, is known by the company it keeps—in other words, every bank has a distinct character.
This Bank has been so closely associated with rural development in the past half century that it is now characterized as the Farmer's Partner
If you are looking for practical banking co-operation, let our
