It was fitting that Sir John Eaton's funeral on Monday was the largest and most impressive ever held in Toronto. Sir John had no enemies; but hosts of friends.

A number of the relatives visited the home of Mrs. James McLean Saturday evening and spent a most pleasant time. Mrs. McLean is to be congratulated on her good health and spirits on her 77th birthday.

"Where there is smoke, there is always fire," so when twenty million well-known men and women in all walks of life say Tanlac is a good medicine, there must be something to it. It is sold at Sloan's Drug Store.

Mr. Victor Pugsley, of Sedley, Sask., after a sad journey arrived here Saturday by C. N. R. with the remains of his little son, "Billie." Interment took place in the family plot. Mr. and Mrs. Pugsley have the deepest sympathy of many friends.

Dr. Shields, of the Jarvis Street Baptist Church Toronto, on some aspects of The Second Coming of Christ.

Two very handsome cases of silverware 1st and 2nd prizes in the single rink Curling competition, presented by J. McLean, and won by Mr. J. Graham and Willfred Jones, respectively, may be seen in the window of Mrs. Wm. Davies.
W. SCOTT, President. W. DAVIES, Secretary.

A meeting of citizens—men and women—was held Friday evening, in the public school to talk over the formation of a Home and School Club, but owing to the inclement weather not many attended. Good addresses were given by Mrs. Reese and Mrs. Courtice, both of Toronto. A committee was appointed to arrange for another meeting, the date to be announced later.

J. H. Dunlop returned on Saturday after spending ten days in and about Indianapolis, Ind., attending the Fifth National Flower Show, under the joint auspices of the Society of American Florists, the American Rose Society, and the American Carnation Society. This exhibition is held triennially, and is the largest and most important on the continent. An exhibit of Dunlop Roses received the usual recognition of highest awards. Mr. Dunlop was one of the jurors, being judge of both roses and carnations on three days of the exhibition. Although the weather was very unfavorable, raining each day, the attendance was very large, crowding the immense exhibition hall.

Millinery

Your Easter Hat

MRS. WM. DAVIES
RICHMOND HILL

Ladies of discriminating taste are no longer buying ready-made or manufactured millinery. We have intimated in our previous advertisements the advantages, and the preference of ladies generally for the hand-made hat.

In our Millinery Parlour on Saturday next, we shall exhibit a few new models, not having yet been shown, an inspection of which will give you an idea of our work, and which we are confident will convince you, we are all we claim to be, "First-class Milliners."

One of the most important factors in Millinery is color blending, and should you favor us with your order for Easter, not later than Tuesday next, we will make you a shape, and trim accordingly, our long experience enabling us to arrange the colorings in perfect harmony.

We give you a minimum quotation, which will bear any comparison; never having believed in exorbitant profits, our business has been built by fair and legitimate trading, a policy which we shall continue to maintain.
