IN MEMORIAM

RICHARDSON (NEE ELSIE BRILLINGER)
 —In sad and ever-loving memory of our darling daughter and sister who entered into rest, April 7th, 1920, at her late residence, 58 Campbell Ave., Toronto.

Dear Elsie how we miss you.
 As we pass these lonesome days,
 Listening for your gentle footsteps and your voice and smile so gay.
 You have gone across the river,
 To the shores of ever-green,
 How we long to see your sweet face,
 But the river flows between,
 Some day we hope to meet you:
 Some day we know not when,
 We will clasp your hand in a better
 land,
 And never part again.
 —Mother, Father and Sister.

REAMAN—In loving memory of our dear father who departed this life April 9th, 1919.

Just a thought of sweet remembrance,
 From a memory fond and true:
 Just a token of affection
 And a longing still for you.
 When the shades of night are falling,
 And we're sitting here alone,
 There often comes a longing,
 If you only could come home.
 Your cherry, sunny countenance will ne'er from memory fade, Nor yet can we forget the pleasant cheerfulness you made,
 And often when we mourn for you
 we seem to hear you say,
 "Keep up your hearts, we'll meet again in that Eternal Day."
 'Tis sweet to know we'll meet again
 where parting is no more,
 And that the ones we loved so well,
 Have only gone before.
 —Bro. Josiah, Wife, Family.

REAMAN—In loving memory of Jessie, dearly beloved daughter of the late D. S. and Mrs. Reaman, who left us on April 11, 1919.

Sadly the stars are gleaming
 On a silent grave,
 Where thou sleepest, Jessie,
 Whom we loved but could not save.
 You have gone to rest, your troubles
 are o'er,
 You are done with all sorrow and pain
 The ills of this life which you nobly bore,
 Will never distress you again, Jessie, loved Jessie, how soon should we cease to weep,
 Could we glance thro' the golden gateways,
 Whose keep the angels keep,
 Yet Love, our love that is deathless, can follow, where'er you roam Over the Hills of God, Jessie, the beautiful Hills of Home.

The flowers we place upon your grave,
 May wither and decay,
 But loving thoughts will always linger Round the grave where you are laid.
 —Uncle Josiah, Mother, Brother and Sisters.
