York Ranger Cadet Corps Inspection

It is with the deepest feelings of personal regret that the O. C., of the Cadet Corps announces the sudden death of the late Lt.-Col. S. J. Huggins, D. S. O., M. C., Director General of Cadet Training, who conducted the Annual Inspection of the Corps last Friday evening, June 9, and whose death occurred in the City of Hamilton, on Monday last, to where he had gone on a similar official duty.

The late distinguished and gallant officers last words, as he stepped to his car, "Well done Morden, carry on," echo back a stirring call to duty, and imbued by that vision of noble service, may the work of the Richmond Hill Cadet Corps be further established.

Cadet Capt. Geo. Lasher, Cadet Lieut. Bert Grant and Cadet Lieut. Eric Blaney represented the Richmond Hill Corps at his funeral, and all Cadet Parades for week ending June 17, are cancelled.

Burr-Dunn

A very happy event took place at the home of Mrs. Catharine Dunn, of Mount Albert on Wednesday evening, May 31, when her daughter, Miss Effie Frances, was married to Mr. John F. Burr, of Richmond Hill, in the presence of about forty guests. Rev. C. E. Dyer, the pastor of the Presbyterian Church, officiated. The wedding march was played by Miss Eldred Ross, a cousin of the bride. The bride, who was given away by Mr. H. Ross, was charmingly dressed in mauve, trimmed with seed pearls, and carried a lovely bouquet of roses and fern. Miss Elsie Steeper, niece of the bride, acted as flower girl, and looked very sweet in a dress of pale blue organdie, trimmed with pink rosebuds, she carrying a bouquet of pink roses and fern. The groom's gift to the bride was a piece of furniture, and to the flower girl a wrist watch. The bride's going-away costume was a suit of navy blue tricotine, with hat to match. After the wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Burr, left amid a shower of confetti for their wedding trip in the Niagara Peninsula, and returned to reside in Richmond Hill.

NEWTON BROOK

The annual re-union and Picnic of the Old Boys and Girls of Newton Brook, was held on the beautiful grounds of Mr. G. R. Goulding. The well kept lawn, the fruitful orchards and the ornamental trees were the admiration of about one hundred and forty people present. While death during the past year has taken several of our number, notably Mrs. R. P. Hopper, yet their memory is a joy. Their annual gatherings cement friendship that began some thirty, forty, fifty and even more than sixty years ago. A few who were unable to be present on account of distance did not forget to write, conveying their interest in the people who were their playmates at the old red school house. The Streets, Watsons, Agars, James, Andersons, Francis, Caseleys, Lees, Munshaws, Clarks, Bales, Schuidts were all well represented.

Mr. G. R. Goulding was appointed chairman of Committee for the ensuing year and Miss Street as Secretary. The time of next years gathering will be the second Saturday in June. The place will be decided later.

Among the visitors present were the Revs. Messrs St. John and Baker who gave addresses full of humour. This has been one of the largest and most successful re-unions of the series.

The company would have been somewhat larger, but the weather was threatening and for an out-door gathering some did not wish to take risks.

Mention should be made of the reading of two poems by Mrs. Middleton one upon attainment of seventy years of age (June 10th) by her sister Mrs. Lovell, the other in memoriam of the death of another sister Mrs. R. P. Hopper, the company singing a verse of "Forever with the Lord."

Mr. Goulding was an ideal host, the company of lady assistants commanded admiration, the puns, jokes and old time stories provoked laughter. The smiles proved far more effectual as to youth and attractive looks than any cosmetics.

The singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and "God Save the King" terminated the re-union for the time being.

A noticeable feature of those present was in discovering the ages of the group, in conversation even a few months excess in any one of the company brought forth congratulation. The Old Girls were just as keen to state and excel in age as the Old Boys. Have times or have individuals changed?

A race for all those over 75 years of age, was proposed; when the competitors were lined up it was found the prize money was not of sufficient attraction for a competition.
