Harvest Home Festival

Special sermons under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid will be preached by the pastor, Rev. H. S. Warren, Sunday, Sept. 24. Special music by the choir. On Monday following a Supper and Concert will be held. Supper in the school room from 5.30 to 7.30. Concert in the church at 8 o'clock. Good musical and literary programme. Supper and Concert 50 cents; Concert alone 25 cents.

AURORA

An additional $40,000 will be granted to the School Board for the completion of Aurora's new high school, it was decided at a special meeting of the Town Council Saturday evening, when a deputation from the School Board waited upon the Council with their request for the extra grant. A sum of $60,000 was granted a few months ago when it was decided to build the school, but this has proved insufficient to complete the building. A by-law granting the money will be put into effect at the next meeting of the Council.

Special attention given to sales of every description. Farms and farm stock sales specialty. Farms bought and sold on commission. All sales attended to on shortest notice, and conducted by the most approved methods. Patronage solicited.

In the presence of nearly 6,000 persons Premier King Friday night presented the cup he had donated to the Aurora baseball team, winners of the York-Simcoe Baseball League. Representatives from all the towns in the league were present, and made brief speeches. The Premier made the presentation, congratulated the players on their success, and then left for Barrie to visit his sister.

The celebration was conducted under the auspices of the Board of Trade, and Wellington street where it took place, was brilliantly lighted and decorated in honor of Hon. Mr. King's visit. Headed by the Citizens' Band, a parade formed up at the Grand Trunk station and marched along Wellington street to Yonge street.

W. D. Watson presided, and the formal proceedings occupied only a few minutes. Short speeches were given by Mayor Cane and Reeve Keith, representing Newmarket; Reeve Coombes, Bradford, and J. A. Greene, Richmond Hill. On behalf of the Board of Trade, President J. M. Walton presented the baseball players with suitably engraved rings.

Community singing was led by Mr. Harry Morden, and the pleasant affair was brought to a close by a community dance on Wellington street.

York Ranger Cadets

Cadets of the Roman Catholic faith will parade with the O. C. and Cadet Lieut. Bert Grant to the morning celebration of the Mass next Sunday morning.

Sunday evening Cadets of the Protestant faith will muster at the Public School at 6.30 sharp, and at 6.45 headed by the Toronto Cadet Corps Bugle Band will parade to the Methodist Church. This parade is in honour of the Rev. Mr. Warren and during the service the Rev. Mr. Wellwood will deliver a special address to the Corps. It is expected that Lieut. Col. Clarke D. S. O. and Mrs. Clarke of Toronto, as also Major Orr M. C. will attend this service. Full strength parade is imperative.

Friday evening next Juvenile and Senior Cadets will parade at 8 o'clock Standard time at the Public School to organize the Senior and Juvenile hockey teams for the coming season, as also if possible the organizing of a Senior and Juvenile foot ball team.

Cadet Sergt. Martin at the same time will organize his Bugle Band and desires applicants for admission to the Band to be present without fail.

The O. C. has ordered the football outfits for Cadet Sergt. Lambert Atkinson's Squad now playing in the High School team. The thanks of the Corps to the co operation that Principal Stewart of the High School is extending in this regard is now expressed.

The Cub Platoon will parade on Saturday afternoon and will drill for the Sunday parade. Cadet Lieut. Bert Grant will assist the O. C. in this training.

Mrs. McLatchy will look after the very important matter of having refreshments prepared for the Toronto Cadets before they return to the City after the service.

In detailing this very special church parade for the Corps the O. C. desires to have the co-operation of the Cadet Mothers. And may the Cadets of this command each during the coming year become actively identified with their respective churches.

The O. C. has volunteered to the Commanding Officer his services should the regiment be mobilized for service Overseas and has received his assurance that in any possible later eventuality the same will be given every consideration.

Keep Money Working

You wouldn't keep a strong, healthy horse in the stable "eating its head off" and doing no work. That wouldn't be profitable.

Then why keep surplus money idle about the house when it could be earning interest in a Sterling Bank Savings Account. In addition to being absolutely safe and profitable, it gives you the benefit of Sterling Bank Service in financial matters as well.

MAPLE

About one hundred ladies attended the Trousseau tea given by Mrs. J. T. Saigeon on Saturday in honor of her two daughters Miss Myrtle and Miss Dell Saigeon. The tea-room was tastefully decorated with roses and asters, and tea was poured by Mrs. T. F. McMahon and Mrs. T. Cousins. Mrs. Camp, Miss Jessie Rumble and Miss Marguerite Bailey served, and were assisted by Mrs. Keys, Miss Lottie Martin and Miss Bertha Leccc.

A miscellaneous shower in honor of the prospective brides was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. T. Cousins. A large number of useful and beautiful presents were received. Quite a number of prizes were taken by pupils of the public school at the school fair at Vellore Wednesday.

The members of the Domestic Science class and the Agricultural class held an At Home at Vellore on Wednesday evening of last week.

The services on Maple Methodist Circuit for Sunday will be as follows: Hope, 11 a. m.; Maple rally services for S.S. schools of the circuit at 2.30 p. m. Evening service at 7 o'clock. There will be no morning service at Maple nor afternoon service at Edgeley.

Harvest Home Services will be held in St. Stephen's Church, Maple, Friday, Sept. 22. Also on Sunday, Sept. 24, morning and evening.

Fraser—Dibb

St. John's Church, Oak Ridges, was the scene of a very pretty autumn wedding, when Rev. P. R. Soanes solemnized the marriage of Olive Dibb, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dibb, to Mr. William Chas. Fraser, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fraser, South Durham, Quebec. The bride who was given away by her father wore a gown of white satin with georgette overdress trimmed with pearls and embroidered veil caught with orange blossoms and carried Ophelia roses. Her only attendant was her sister Mary who was gowned in white satin trimmed with pearls and carried Columbia Roses. The groom was supported by Mr. William Bell.

During the signing of the Register Miss Doris Curtis sang, "O Perfect Love." Miss Alida Beynon presided at the organ.

The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a sunburst, to the organist and soloist bar pins, and to the best man a tie pin. After the ceremony a buffet lunch was served at the bride's parents'. The happy couple left for Montreal and other eastern points. The bride travelled in a navy blue tricot suit, with henna hat and silver trimming. On their return they will reside at Emerson ave., Toronto.
