

TURKS AND ALLIED POWERS SIGN THE MUDANIA CONVENTION TERMS

Allies Preparing to Occupy Thrace With Three Battalions of British, Three of French and One of Italian Troops — Greece Also Agrees to Terms.

A despatch from Mudania says:—The armistice convention has been signed. The representatives of the Turks and of all the powers concerned affixed their signatures to the revised protocol, which General Harington had presented for acceptance to Ismet Pasha, and which the Nationalist delegate had previously forwarded to the Angora Government for its decision.

The convention, consisting of 14 clauses, is drawn on liberal lines, showing strongly traces of French influence on the side of the Kemalists.

Under it the Greeks will evacuate Eastern Thrace within 15 days and complete the transfer to the Turks in an additional month. The Turkish civil administration will follow closely on the heels of the departing Greeks, the entire transfer being under the supervision of the Allied missions and Allied forces provisionally occupying Thrace, not exceeding seven battalions. The number of Turkish gendarmerie in the province during the interval is left undefined to the discretion of the Kemalists, subject to Allied approval.

The Turks, on their side, undertake not to place an army in Thrace until peace is ratified, while new neutral zones will be delimited by fixed commissions.

The protocol gives no time limit for withdrawal of the Turkish forces from the neutral zones: it simply specifies "with all possible speed."

A despatch from Constantinople says:—Plans for the Allied detachments to move into Thrace and occupy the territory in conformity with the armistice convention signed at Mudania, were completed on Thursday. The force will comprise three battalions of British troops, three of French and one of Italian, a total of 5,000 men.

A despatch from Paris says:—Greece has decided to sign the Mudania armistice convention and evacuate Thrace, according to the conditions stipulated in that document, the French Foreign Office has been officially informed.

A despatch from Chanak says:—A general retirement of the Turkish troops from the immediate vicinity of Chanak is in progress.

A Chanak despatch Thursday announced an advance of the Turkish forces towards the British line, against which the British commander protested, as a violation of the armistice agreement. The Turkish commander, replying, declared he had not yet received notification of the armistice, but would give orders for retirement as soon as such notice came.

AMNESTY ACCEPTED BY FEW IRREGULARS

Ambushes Mark Last Week-End During Which Offer is Open.

Dublin, Oct. 15.—The last week-end during which Irregulars can take advantage of the Free State's amnesty offer opened with a number of ambushes in which several were killed and a number wounded.

Few Irregulars have taken advantage of the amnesty, although scattered individuals have surrendered in several southern sections. It is now rumored that the violence to-day and last night may be only preliminary to an attempted insurgent coup, but these reports are received calmly for the most part.

In Drogheda last night National posts were attacked by Irregulars and the streets were swept by fire all night. One party of Irregulars occupied the cemetery and were dislodged only after prolonged operations.

In Kerry farmers united to carry food from Killarney to Fenit, which has been cut off from the world by Irregular activities. Over 120 wagons guarded by National forces were sent in one train, which was attacked at many points along the road.

In each case the Irregulars were beaten off. They are believed to have lost four killed and nine wounded, while two of the Nationals were injured. A party of National troops were ambushed at Brugha, a Kerry village, during the night. A sergeant was killed and a private wounded.

Four Free State soldiers were wounded by the explosion of a time bomb in their barracks. The bomb was picked up on the street by a sergeant as a dud and carried to the station. In several other instances the Irregulars are believed to have used time bombs.

Young women and girls are now taking an active part in the street ambushes which are a daily occurrence in Dublin. Last night they threw bombs and fired revolvers at several parties of National soldiers, but no one was hit. The girls escaped in every instance.

TURKS TO MAKE FOUR IMPORTANT DEMANDS AT COMING PEACE PARLEY

Greek Troops to Leave Thrace in Three Stages — Entry of Turkish Troops into Eastern Thrace Under Control of Allied Police and Soldiers.

Constantinople, Oct. 15.—The Turkish newspaper, Ileri, says Mustapha Kemal Pasha will make four important new demands at the coming peace conference. These will be, first, for the suppression of the Greek navy; second, for the exchange of all persons of the civilian minorities, meaning the return to Turkey of all Moslems in Greek territory; third, the neutralization of the Aegean Islands, and, fourth, that the question of Western Thrace be decided by a plebiscite.

Adrianople, Oct. 15.—The Greek military authorities have announced that the evacuation of the Greek army in Thrace will take place in three stages, first, in the Adrianople district; second, around Rodosto, and third, at the Maritza River. Five days will be allowed each section to evacuate.

The allied officers have been directed to refuse inflexibly any extension of the five-day period.

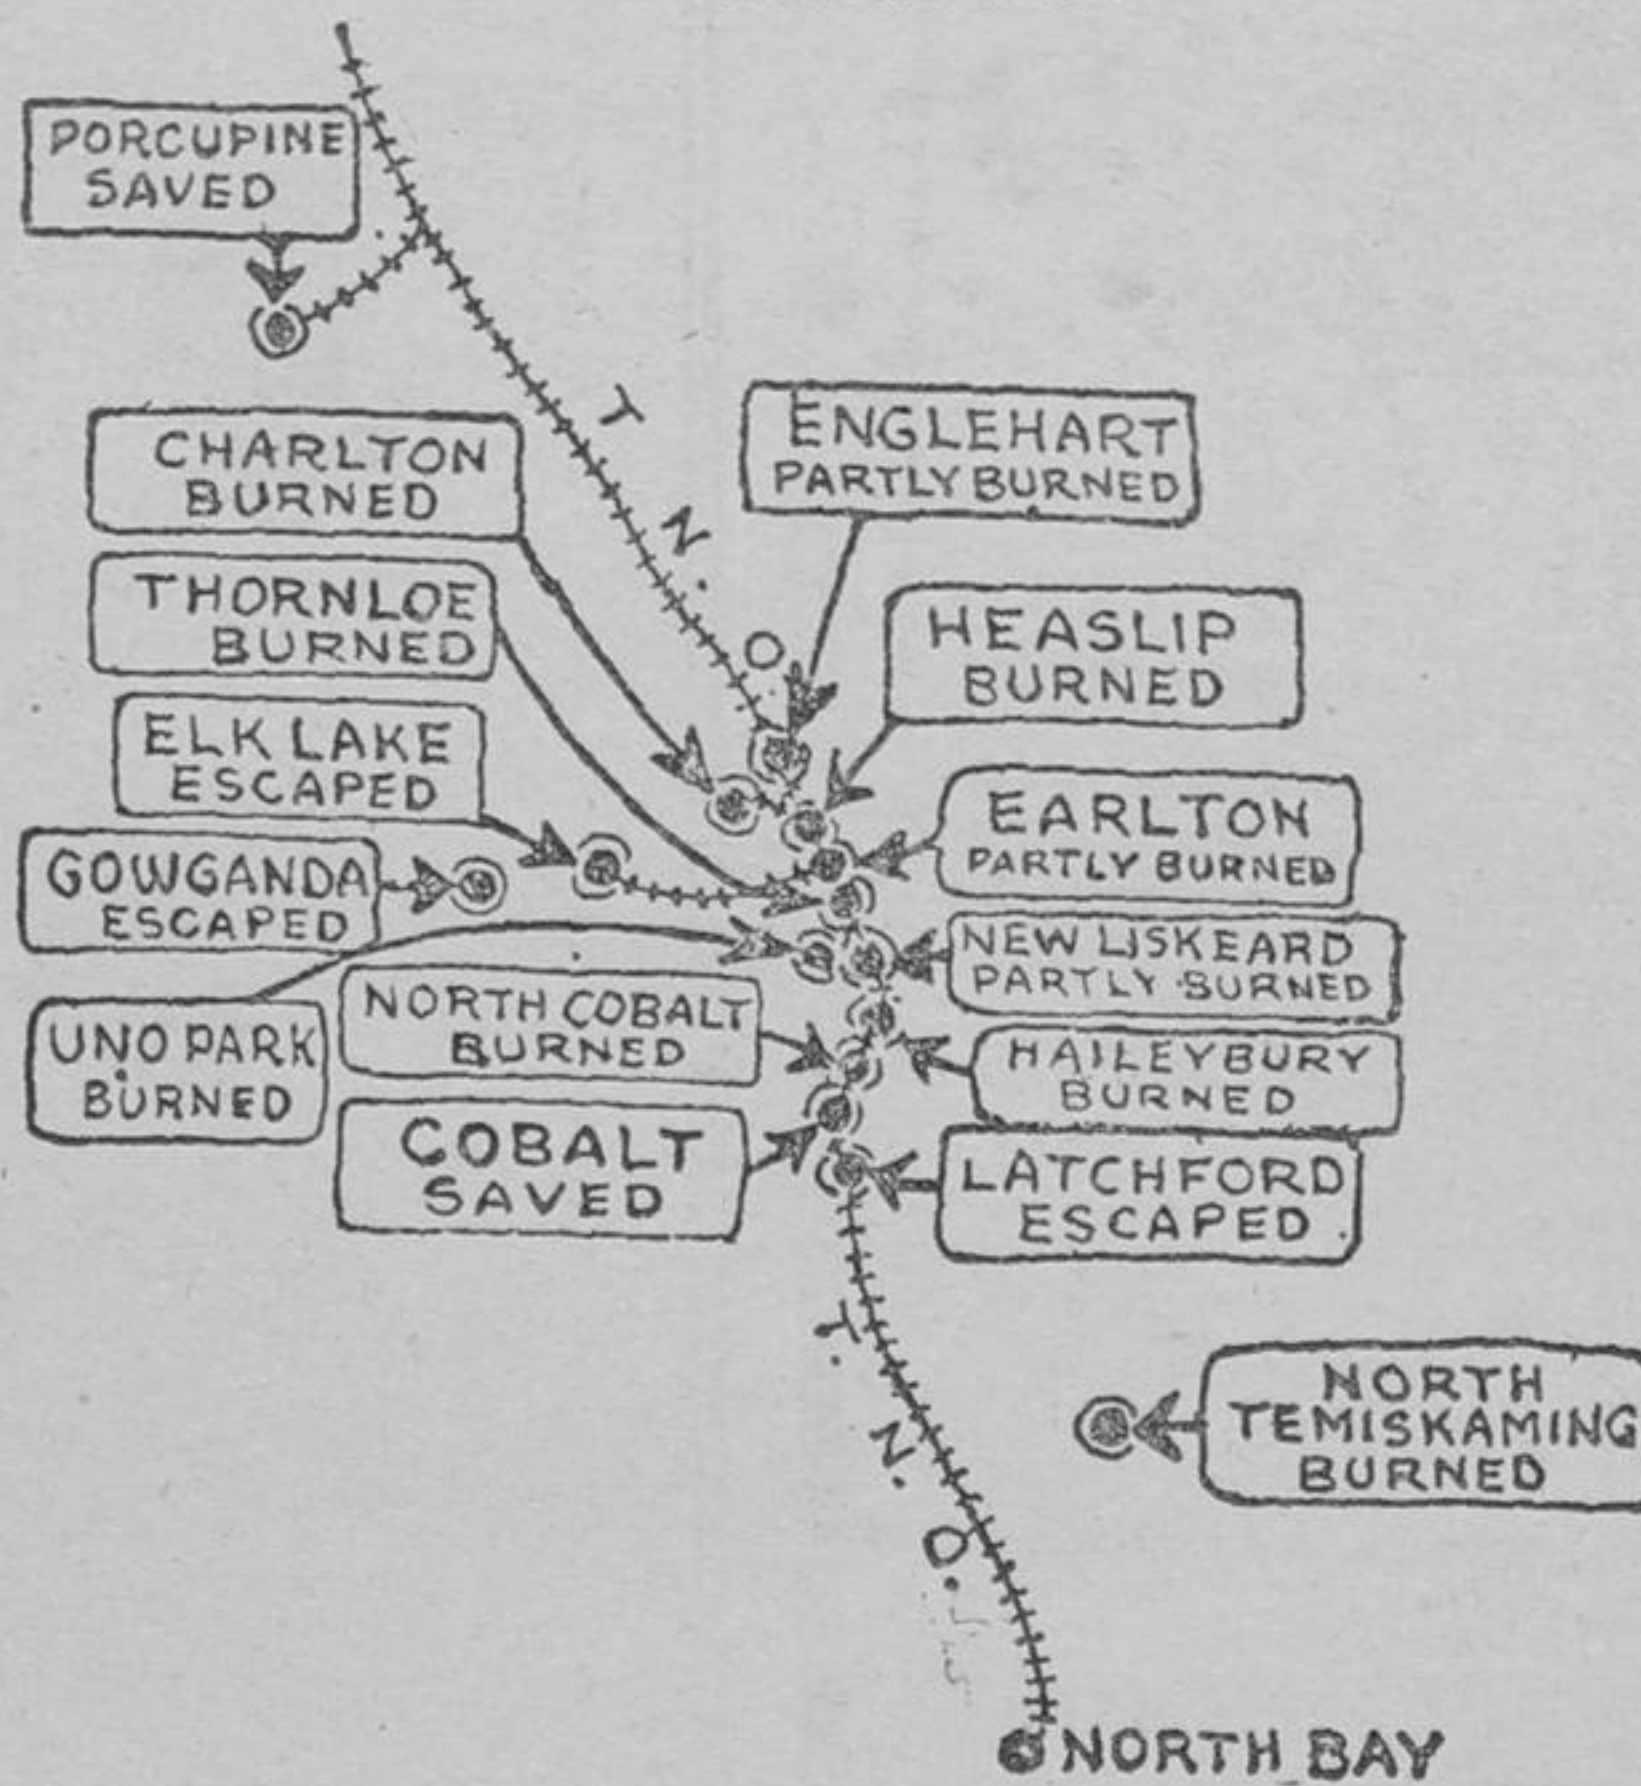

Greek headquarters will remain at Rodosto until October 20. Afterwards it will be transferred to Dedeagatch.

The Italians will be the first of the allied detachments to take over administration in Thrace. They will be in charge at Tchornu, at the end of the first five-day period.

The first battalion of Kemalist gendarmerie for Thrace will arrive Wednesday.

The entry will be under control of Allied police and soldiers. The Kemalists will appear in resplendent uniforms of grey and crimson, and will be required to entrain immediately for Thrace.

WASHINGTON SHOWS SIGNS OF INTEREST IN REHABILITATION OF WORLD

A despatch from Washington says:—Participation of the United States in an economic conference at some unnamed future date seemed to be foreshadowed by the utterances and reticences of officials here.

The impression grows that the United States will not long be able to avoid taking part in some manner of international consideration of the questions that have to do with the rehabilitation of the world. The hope is that in the settlement of the Near East question, the European powers will see their way to rectify some of the errors of the Sevres Treaty with which the United States has never been in sympathy and that out of that new arrangement will come a condition that will make it possible for Washington to take part in a less hurried and more comprehensive session later. In other words, there has been given a broad hint that if Europe will clear the ground of the threats of wars, and show some approach to accord, America will be glad to meet with them and do all it can towards stabilizing exchange and extending whatever other aid lies in its power. There must be some indication of their willingness to cut down land armaments, which the United States considers a vital part of the economic situation, before Washington take any direct steps.

No official explanations are being made as to this Government's possible attitude on control of the Dardanelles by the League of Nations or by an Allied Commission. Previous declarations have made it clear that the United States does not entertain a hostile attitude towards the League so long as it does not seek to include the Washington Government in its operations.

ROUMANIAN RULERS CROWNED WITH POMP

Long-Delayed Coronation of King Ferdinand and Queen Marie Held at Albajulia.

Albajulia, Roumania, October 15.—King Ferdinand and Queen Marie were solemnly crowned to-day in the vast public square amid the plaudits of thousands of picturesquely-dressed Roumanians. The ceremony was carried out without incident.

Promptly on the conclusion of the church service, a procession was formed, and the sovereigns, escorted by the Duke of York, Prince Paul of Jugo-Slavia, the Duke of Genoa, the Infante Alfonso, Marshal Foch and the foreign delegations, and, preceded by the Metropolitan and Bishops, marched from the church to the richly decorated dais in the centre of the square.

Stands had been erected around the square for the high personages of the Kingdom, and the rest of the space was dense with spectators.

As soon as the sovereigns had taken their places on the dais, the President of the Senate received the crown from the President of the Chamber and placed it on the head of the King. The King, in turn, crowned the Queen, who knelt before him. The King and Queen were then clothed in the royal mantles and other insignia.

The procession was loudly acclaimed at the conclusion of the ceremony, Marshal Foch, in particular, getting a special ovation.

What It Would Be.

The teacher was trying to make clear to a bad boy of the class the meaning of the term "accidental death." "Suppose," said she, "that in passing over a rotten bridge the Mayor of the town should tumble into the river and be drowned—what would you call that?" "We would call it a holiday for the next day," answered the bad boy.
