Cook—Valliere

A pretty autumn wedding took place Wednesday, October 25, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. N. Street, Richmond Hill, when Beatrice Lucinda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Valliere, Richmond Hill, was united in marriage to Herbert W. N. Cook, son of the late Mr. Robert and Mrs. Cook, Richmond Hill, Rev. H. S. Warren officiating. The bride looked charming in dress of white charma satin crepe with touches of shell pink and crystal beads, and carried a lovely bouquet of Ophelia roses. Her embroidered tulle veil was prettily caught with lily of the valley. She entered the room on the arm of her father, to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Mr. Donald Brown of Toronto, who also rendered "Loves Golden Star" during the signing of the register. The ceremony was performed under an arch of autumn leaves and chrysanthemums, the only attendant being a small nephew of the bride, Master Harris Ford also of Richmond Hill, who acted as train bearer, after which tea was served to about fifty guests, the dining room being decorated with pink and white streamers and autumn leaves, old fashioned baskets of pink roses completing the table decorations. The happy couple were the recipients of many useful and beautiful gifts, and left amid showers of confetti and good wishes to spend their honeymoon in Ohio, the bride travelling in navy blue tulle suit, hat of blue with sand trimmings and fox fur. Upon their return they will reside in their new home, Roseview Ave. Richmond Hill

When the Landlord Raised the Rent

"I never do have any fun," complained a young girl petulantly. "Come with me, and I'll cure your discontent," suggested a visiting nurse of the National Sanitarium Association. They visited a humble little home. The mother was struggling to support the three children, while her husband was fighting tuberculosis at the Muskoka Hospital for Consumptives. Life was not rosy. It became tragic when the rent was doubled. Hopeless despair looked from her brown eyes. Three pairs of childish eyes watching, sensed something to make even baby lips quiver. "But there!" with a smile, and the babies smiled too, "I musn't complain. He's getting better anyway. He writes it's wonderful up there—it's saved his life." And the brown eyes were a prayer. "I've just got to help," exclaimed an enthusiastic young person as she and the nurse walked down the road. Contributions may be sent to Hon. W. A. Charlton 223 College Street, Toronto.

A Spring Day Up in Muskoka

A Spring day in Muskoka, with sky and water vividly blue; the smell of pine, the song of birds in the air. On a sunny slope a girl gathered trilliums with eager hands. She smiled at the questioning stranger.

"I never plucked wild flowers before," she said wistfully. "We lived in the city. Father died, and then—mother, of tuberculosis. I was all alone. I wasn't strong,—worked too hard,—and I got it. They brought me here to the Sanitarium on a stretcher."

"But, look at me now!" exultantly. The glow of health was in her cheeks. "It's the rest and care and good food and fresh air that saved me," and her eyes shone joyously.

Surely she was worth saving, this bonny blue-eyed girl! Surely the Muskoka Hospital for Consumptives deserves her gratitude!
