Oyster Supper

A very pleasing and enjoyable event took place at the home of Mr. A. F. Leek at Headford, on Dec. 27th, when his Sunday School class paid him a surprise visit. An oyster supper was served, at which about twenty guests sat down.

The remainder of the evening was spent in games and other amusements. After tendering Mr. Leek a vote of thanks for such an enjoyable good time, the party broke up in the small hours of the morning.

MAPLE

The masquerade dance in the Community Hall on New Year's night was well attended. A number in representative costume were present and the following prizes were given: Best dressed couple, Mr. and Mrs. Smithers of Woodbridge, Highlander and Japanese lady; best dressed lady, Miss L. Stewart, of Woodbridge, as Fairy; best dressed gentleman, Mr. R. Eastman, of Woodbridge, as Major; and Booby prize, Mr. W. Blough. The music was furnished by Sanderson's Orchestra.

Dr. Routley spoke in the Methodist Church on Sunday night on the fire in Northern Ontario and the work of the Red Cross Society.

Mr. J. H. Watson met with a serious accident last Saturday. He was putting on a load of hay in the barn when he fell from a height of fifteen feet, fracturing four of his ribs. His stomach was pierced by the broken ribs, making an operation necessary. At the recent meeting of the ratepayers of this section, Mr. J. B. McLean was re-elected as trustee.

The annual entertainment of the Sabbath School of St. Andrew's was held last Thursday evening. A large number from St. Paul's were present and a splendid programme was given by the young people of that congregation.

The subject of the sermon in the Methodist church next Sunday evening, will be "Pressing On." Mrs. Lamwill sing "The Holy City," illustrated by colored slides. At the close of the service a set of pictures entitled "Pioneering in North Ontario" will be thrown upon the screen.

Systematic Saving

You plant seed in the Spring so as to reap more in the Fall. Depositing money in the Sterling Bank is following the same plan—for it steadily increases through the interest earned. And saving a little regularly is the simplest, surest and safest method of providing for later years.

Obituary

It is with deep regret that we chronicle in this issue, the most lamented demise of Mrs. John Naughton, of Elgin Mills. Of a retiring and patient disposition, the deceased suffered for many years with silent and christian resignation, always considering her family with the unselfishness and the love which only a mother knows. Mrs. Naughton possessed in a marked degree, the rare qualities of heart which go to make the loving mother, the valuable neighbor. Her welcome smile and her brief counsel will not soon be forgotten by her many friends.

The funeral took place on Dec. 29th from her late residence to St. Mary's Church, Richmond Hill, where High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Kelly. The church choir was assisted by Rev. Br. Gregory and the brothers and boys of De La Salle College. The interment took place at Thornhill Cemetery.

Mrs. Naughton is survived by one son, J. H. Naughton, Barrister-at-law, and two daughters, Nellie Naughton, B. A., and Louise Naughton. Needless to say the afflicted family have the deep sympathy of a wide circle of friends in the loss of the nearest and dearest of all—the loss of a mother.

York Ranger Cadets

The Cadet Corps Radio Club will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stirling on Friday evening of the 5th. Cadet Corp. David Stirling (Crystal Detector) will give the paper for the "Meet". Corps Radio Fans will assemble promptly at 8 o'clock. President Cadet Sergt. Armstrong (Atra) will arrange details of this parade.

The Cub Hockey Team will be addressed by the Reeve at the meeting of the Town Council next Tuesday evening. Cadet Corp. Brawley (Captain of the team) and Cadet Corp. Allan Duncan (Manager) will see that all details for this parade are arranged. The new outfits will be worn as also Great Coats.

The Senior Cadet Hockey Team as also Juvenile Cadet Hockey Team will "carry on" and have entered the Metropolitan Hockey League. They are making the best of the unavoidable situation as regards ice, and provision is being made for the return games being scheduled late in the season. The Corps ask for the loyal support of the Hockey Fans to these games when played.
