TESTON

Special sermons will be preached in Teston Methodist church Sunday, January 21, by Dr. R. N. Burns, Toronto. On the following Tuesday, an Oyster supper and concert will be given by members of the Eaton Memorial choir, assisted by other able talent.

A Similarity

It is said that in a certain country school section the trustees found they must get better accommodation for the children, as their old school house was not large enough. They held a meeting and passed three resolutions: First, that they build a new school house. Second, that they use all the lumber in the old school to help build the new school. Third, that they keep school in the old school house while the new school was being built. In some respects our esteemed Village Fathers resemble the country trustees. They have decided to build a new skating rink. They will use the lumber in the old rink for the new rink. But they have made no provision for skaters using the old rink while the new is being built.

Presbyterian S. S.

The annual meeting of the Teachers and Officers of the Richmond Hill Presbyterian Sabbath School was held at the home of Mr. Sims, the Superintendent, on Thursday, Jan. 4, at 8 o'clock. Reports from the Secretary and Treasurer showed a very prosperous year and pointed to an even better one to come. The officers elected for 1923 were as follows: G. S. Sims Superintendent; A. R. Phipps, Secretary; D. Watson Assistant Secretary; H. B. Stirling, Treasurer; Miss M. Cooper, Pianist. The teachers are: Mrs. Sims, Miss Madeline Cooper, Miss Mary Cooper, Miss Monkman, Mrs. Stirling, Miss McNab, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Endeau, Miss Richardson, Mrs. Phipps, Mr. Morden and Mr. Stewart. Mr. Stewart is organizing a Young Men's Bible Class. He will give a hearty welcome to any young men who may desire to attend. The meeting is 2.45, Sunday afternoon. A. R. PHIPPS, Secretary

York Ranger Cadets

It is with pride that the O. C. records the sportsmanship displayed by the Senior Cadets in their co-operation with him to "carry on" regardless of the prevailing unavoidable conditions in the matter of ice. On Friday evening of the 12th, the Cadets will leave by special car for Schomberg with the following line up. Goal, Cadet Cecil Harding, Defense, Cadet Sgt. Sharpless and Grainger, Forwards, (left) Cadet Sgt. Armstrong, Centre Cadet Sgt. Bruce Ross, (Right) Cadet Sgt. Clarence Mylks, Subs. Cadet Lieuts White and Blaney. Likewise the Midgets will "carry on" Cadet Sgt. Manager Armstrong now completing his team. Cub hockey team will be addressed by the Reeve next Monday evening, and it is expected that they will leave for Newmarket on Saturday afternoon, Cadet Lieut. Bert Grant being in charge. Line up of Cubs is as follows. Goal, Cadet Corpl. Johnston Armstrong, Defense, Cadet Corpl. Allen Duncan, Cadet Boyes, Forwards, Cadet Corpl. David Stirling, Centre Cadet Corpl. Bewley, Cadet Lyle Grant, Subs. Cadet Enoch Batty, Russell Lynett and Pete Savage. All three teams have been regiminally equipped, and the O. C. would ask for the loyal support of the town hockey fans. Worthily are Richmond Hill sporting traditions being maintained by the Cadets. The Cadet Radio club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Stirling, last Friday evening enjoyed by the Radio Fans, of which in the Corps there are over 30. The paper given by Cadet Corpl. David Stirling (Crystal Detector) on the "Winding of a Coil" was most instructive and most cleverly demonstrated, Cadet Sgt. "Atra" Armstrong, Radio Technical Expert, was in the chair, and after the paper, went minutely into the explanation of the "Crystal Detector," after which refreshments, brought a very delightful evening to a close. The Clubs next meet will be at the home of Cadet Sgt. "Atra" Armstrong. The Club Mascot, "Stetic" has been indisposed since the last Club met, and the Club President, Cadet Sgt "Atra" Armstrong has been summoned to administer technique aid.

A Great Convenience For Housewives

Have you tried the convenient and safe way of paying monthly accounts—by cheque? It does away with the need of keeping surplus money about the house, gives you an accurate record of bills paid.

A Saving Account in the Sterling Bank gives you this privilege—earns interest as well.

Board of Trade Meeting

The first annual meeting of the Richmond Hill Board of Trade was held on Monday, Jan. 8th. The officers for the year 1923 are Mr. Jas. McLean, Pres., Mr. H. Murphy, Vice-Pres., and Mr. P. Sauder, Sec.-Treas. A constitution was adopted. There will be a special meeting on Monday, Jan. 22nd for the purpose of electing committees for the year. Everyone interested is requested to be present at this meeting. The membership fee for the year is $2.00 and we want every business man in Richmond Hill to be a member and a booster.

Debate

Don't miss the debate at the Richmond Hill Epworth League, Monday Jan. 15th, between Victoria Square and Richmond Hill. The subject of this debate is one much talked of today. Resolved that more crime is caused by Riches than Poverty." The speakers of the affirmative are Miss Myrtle Smith and Mr. Gordon Sloan of Richmond Hill; and the negative are Miss May Meek and Mr. D. Fry, of Victoria Square. There is also a good musical program being prepared. We promise you a very pleasant and beneficial evening. All welcome.

Henricks—Kirkpatrick

At 2 o'clock on Wednesday, Dec. 20th, 1922, at the home of the bride's parents, the marriage took place of Grace Bernice, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kirkpatrick, Napanee, and C. E. Henricks, only son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Henricks, Richmond Hill, Ont. The Rev. A. J. Terrill, B. A., B. D., officiated. The bride, who was unattended, looked very pretty in a gown of navy Canton crepe. Following the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served, and immediately after the happy couple left for a short honeymoon to Ottawa, the bride travelling in castor duvetyn coat and hat of grey velvet.

MAPLE

Rev. S. R. Robinson and Rev. Mr. Baringer are holding a series of services on "The Lord's Prayer" every night this week alternately in their churches.

The funeral of the late J. H. Watson, who succumbed to his injuries was held Friday afternoon. After the service in St. Stephen's church, the interment took place with Masonic honours. The sorrowing widow and family have the sympathy of all in their sad bereavement.

The concert given in the Community Hall by the Eckhart Concert Co. and Swiss Bell Ringers was well attended and enjoyed by all.

The subject of the sermon in the Methodist Church Sunday evening will be, "Blowing hot and cold." Scenes in a Canadian Lumber Camp will be thrown on the screen at the close of the service.

Good cheer and good will prevailed at the paragon last Thursday evening when Edgeley choir visited the pastor and his wife. A pleasing feature of the otherwise improvised programme was the presentation to Mrs. Lambert by the choir of a hand painted Nippon salad bowl.
