Advertiser—A petition has been sent to W. W. Treuch, asking him to declare the election held last Wednesday, in S. S. No. 3, at York Mills School house, North York Township to be illegal, owing to the method in which it was carried out.

Mr. John H. Dunlop attended a unique function of Masons Tuesday evening in connection with St. Andrew's Lodge, Toronto, the occasion being a gathering of the older members to do honor to the sons and to pay tribute to those who had fallen in war. Judge Coatsworth, a member of St. Andrew's was one of the speakers of the evening.

Mrs. Leonard Curtis and children are still detained in Toronto. Mrs. Curtis went to visit her mother on Gibson Ave. After severe attacks of colds they were preparing to return home, but last Friday the two children, June and Billy, were taken down with scarlet fever and had to be removed to the Isolation Hospital. These are hard lines as the parents are not allowed to visit the children.

We wish to thank an old friend, Mr. A. E. Coombs, Principal of the St. Catharines Collegiate Institute, for the Christmas number, Vox Collegiensis, the official organ of that educational institution. This excellent number gives the names of 24 teachers on the staff, and describes the new Collegiate Institute and Vocational School which is being erected in that city. The new building is to cost $800,000. There are a number of splendid articles by the principal, teachers, ex-students and others.

His Honour, Judge Daniel O'Connell, presided at Division Court, Richmond Hill, for the first time Tuesday. Only two cases were called. One suit, which was to have been heard before a jury, was adjourned one court, to Feb. 27. In the other case judgment was reserved. The court room was crowded by interested parties in the jury case.

OAK RIDGES

About sixty interested citizens along Yonge Street attended a meeting in the Oak Ridges school house last evening. Representatives were present from Willowdale, Thornhill, Richmond Hill, Elgin Mills, Oak Ridges, Aurora and Newmarket. Mayor Walton, of Aurora, presided. Matters discussed were commutation tickets on the Metropolitan, the widening of Yonge Street, and double tracking the line to Richmond Hill. The meeting was addressed by C. L. Wilson and F. S. Livingston, representing the Railway, who, after hearing the pleas of the various Boards of Trade for better radial service, outlined the Railway's plans for improvements. They thought it probable that special commutation rates would be granted.

All Canadian Books to Lighthouses

It has been decided that all the Books sent next season to the over 150 Lighthouses in the Dominion shall be "All Canadian."

Already, preparations are being made by the Tract Society's Mission to Sailors to select the very best in Canadian literature for the use of the "Watchers of the Lights". The Society hopes to send next season, through its "James S. Potter Literature for Lighthouses Memorial" over one thousand Canadian Books, thus celebrating in an acceptable way the completion of 55 years service for the sailors on the Great Lakes. As last season, so in the coming one, most of the books sent to the Lighthouses are generously supplied by the young people attending the Public, High and Continuation Schools in the Province of Ontario.

We beg to announce we still have good bargains as usual, such as Slater Shoes, for men and women of the best workmanship.

Heniston shoes for kiddies, shoes that fit and will not hurt the bones of the tender feet. Also other makes and all at very reasonable prices.

Inrig Shoes in black and brown for boys, rubbers of all kinds and makes, sweaters, shirts, underwear, socks, ties, collars, and every article of apparel for men and boys.

Also work shirts, overalls, smocks, and mackinaw coats and many other things.
