

As there will be a provincial election this year, it will be the duty of the municipal clerks to prepare and have printed Part III of the voters' list, containing the O. F. A. voters. In addition there will be the usual county revision before the election. The expenses of the County Board of Revision and the printing of the extra lists will have to be borne by the municipalities, the cost to be apportioned by the Board according to the population.

Handling Asparagus After the Cutting Season.

Handling of beds of asparagus after the cutting season is comparatively simple. The first thing necessary is to stop all cutting no later than the first of July. At this time give the bed a thorough cultivation and a heavy coat of manure to the depth of about four to six inches. The addition of commercial fertilizer at the rate of 800 to 1,000 pounds per acre made up largely of nitrogen and phosphorous will be a great help to it. Then allow the bed to grow until the fall, being sure that it is kept sprayed with poison Bordeaux Mixture to keep down the asparagus rust and destroy the asparagus beetle, both in the adult and larval stage. To this poisoned Bordeaux should be added a sticker made of resin or soap as the spray will not adhere to the smooth surface unless this is done. In October when the berries are turning red all the tops should be cut off and burned to remove and danger of asparagus rust or larvae being carried over to next year. The final preparation in the fall is by ploughing toward the row. This will give drainage during the winter time, thus drying out the soil much earlier in the spring when the burrows will be thrown back and the bed gets a much earlier start.—A. H. McLennan, Vegetable Specialist.

IN MEMORIAM

CARLILE—In ever loving memory of dear mother, Ann Ash, beloved wife of William Carlile, who departed this life, February 21, 1921, at Richmond Hill.

In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly tender, fond and true,
There is not a day, dear mother,
That we do not think of you.
—Sadly missed by Pearl and Archie.

CARLILE—In memory of my dear mother, Annie Carlile.

In our hearts your memory lingers,
As it dawns another year,
In the lonely hours of thinking,
Thoughts of you are always near.

'Tis sweet to know we'll meet again,
When troubles are no more,
And that the one we loved so dear,
Has just gone on before.
