

A quantity of clean seed peas at the Elevator.

Schools close to-day to re-open on Monday, the ninth of April.

To-morrow being Good Friday, all places of business will be closed.

Daylight Saving goes into effect in Toronto, on the 13th of May, to continue until the 9th of September.

A boy's boot was found in the Council Chamber sometime ago, and left at The Liberal Office. Will the owner call for it.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church will present "Aunt Susan's Visit," in the Masonic Hall on the evenings of April 9 and 11. See p. 7.

At the last meeting of Richmond Lodge, W. Bro. G. B. Newbery was presented by the Lodge with a Past Master's Jewel. The presentation was made by R. Wor. Bro. W. H. Legge.

Under the auspices of the Girls and Junior Auxiliaries of St. Mary's (C. of E.) a Bazaar and three act comedy "A Pair of Spectacles" will be given in the Masonic Hall, Friday April 13. Further notice later.

Easter services, with appropriate music, will be held in the churches of the Richvale Circuit next Sunday. The sermons will be preached by Rev. A. Lloyd Smith of Toronto. There will be special offerings in aid of Richvale Church.

As it is necessary that we take Flour to keep supplied with Bran and Shorts, we are making a special price on best pastry flour at $6.25 a Bbl. and Purity, Royal Household, and Maple Leaf Flour in cotton at $7.50 a bbl. at the Elevator. A 24 lb. bag for 80c.

The auction sale of Mrs. J. Murphy, Yonge St., Wednesday of last week, conducted by Messrs. Prentice & Prentice, was most satisfactory. Horses, cattle and farm implements brought high prices, and the bidding was brisk from beginning to end.

At a meeting of ratepayers in the Council Chamber Monday evening several committees were appointed in connection with the Old Boys and Girls Field Day to be held in August when the Memorial will be unveiled. The question of Daylight Saving was taken up, but as there was such a difference of opinion no vote was taken.

Nothing Succeeds Like Success

We are earning unanimous approval and retaining the confidence of the buying public by introducing only first class and standardized varieties of merchandise.

A special feature for next Saturday will be a display of Crepe-de-Chene, Georgette, Voile, and Silk Waists, at quotations both tempting and attractive.

Being well stocked and fully prepared for Easter requirements, we are anticipating a record season, and the advanced orders we are now receiving for Spring is indicative that we have the right goods at the right price, and an expression of appreciation of service hitherto given, for the continuance of which our best and every effort will be extended.
