MAPLE

After an illness of some weeks, Mrs.
 Malloy, widow of the late Donald Malloy, passed away at her home last Saturday night. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon.
 It is reported that there is quite a boom in real estate several houses having lately been sold.
 The Ideal Bread Company gave a good concert in the community hall last Thursday evening. A dance was held after the concert.
 School re-opened on Monday after the Easter vacation.
 Quite a number take advantage of the bus to Toronto which leaves here at 8 a. m. and 4 p. m.
 Bishop Sweeny, of Toronto, will take the service at St. Stephen's Church, Maple, next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Have You Met Him?

Though more than 80 years of age, Rev. P. W. Pickett daily visits the General and Orthopedic Hospitals, preaches practically every week, conducts a Sunday school at his own home, and attends actively to his duties as a member of York County Children's Aid Committee. It is now nearly ten years since he retired from active ministry, but to him retirement did not mean cessation from labor. After 40 years in the pulpit most men would consider they had earned the right to rest; not so Mr. Pickett. His last charge was the Methodist Church at Newtonbrook.
 When he retired he purchased the famous old Gold Lion Hotel at Lansing, established a Sunday School where once was a barroom, and quietly assumed a new round of philanthropic duties.—Toronto Globe.

Faithfull—Clubine

On Wednesday, in the presence of the immediate families, a very pretty Easter wedding was solemnized by Rev. Dr. Smith, of Woodbridge, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W.
 Clubine, "Evergreen Place" when their daughter, Elizabeth Elvera, was united in marriage to Mr. Frank Faithfull, of Toronto, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Faithfull. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a becoming gown of ivory French crepe-de-chene, and radium lace and carried a bouquet of Ophelia Roses. Miss Marjorie Clubine who was her sister's bridesmaid, wore orchid crepe-de-chene and carried pink roses. Mr. Herbert Stitt, of Toronto, was best man. Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Mrs. Morley Anderson, of North Toronto, an intimate friend of the bride. During the signing of the register, Mr. Morley Anderson sang "The Sunshine of Your Smile." Mr. and Mrs. Faithfull left for a short trip, the bride travelling in a navy tailored suit and picture hat to match. They will reside on Pacific Avenue, High Park.
