PUBLIC NOTICE

As this is the closing of another coal year, we wish to thank our many customers and others for their patronage and patience through the past winter. Sometimes the coal was misrepresented to us and the price was beyond our control.

Am pleased to announce a substantial reduction in price and would advise ordering your coal as early as possible and avoid exorbitant prices of the past winter.

Ladies Night

The officers and members of Richmond Lodge, A. F. & A. M., held their annual Ladies Night last Thursday evening. The Lodge Room where the reception was held was beautifully decorated with flowers and potted plants. The members and their wives and a few invited ladies were received by Wm. Bro. P. C. Hill and Mrs. Hill after which all repaired to the lower hall where a high-class concert, which delighted everybody present, was given by the best of talent, all from Toronto. Refreshments were served, a social hour followed, and the very pleasant assembly closed with a dance.

York Ranger Cadets

There will be a Camp at Niagara-on-the-Lake this year for the training of Cadets. The O. C. of the corps will make an effort to attend this camp, and he is hopeful of taking a platoon from the Richmond Hill corps. The mothers of the Cadets need therefore have no anxiety as to the Cadets not having every possible attention while in training. The Camp Commandant will be the General Officer Commanding Military District No. 2. Cadets will be given free transportation, as also rations and equipment. The week's camp promises to be most successful.

With improving weather conditions the O. C. will shortly inaugurate spring training.

The Cub Cadets will be trained absolutely apart from the Juniors and the Seniors, the O. C. making preparation for the training of this platoon personally. Early morning drill in the park will shortly follow.

Cadets not signing up for this season's training must hand in their uniforms at once.

"Aunt Susan's Visit"

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church are to be congratulated on the success of their entertainment Monday and Tuesday evening. Every seat in the Masonic Hall was filled both evenings, and the programme—a little over two hours—appeared to be thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

The decorations of crepe in red, white and blue made the hall look very cosy, and the stage was homelike for the reception of "Aunt Susan." The readings by Mrs. McMahon and Miss Myrtle McCague were listened to with marked attention, and the five piece orchestra, between the acts of the play, added very much to the enjoyment of both evenings. The choruses were lively and appropriate, but the character sketch was the chief feature.

Although humorous, the play was not without a moral, and Aunt Susan, a rich, good-hearted though eccentric lady, who came to visit a nephew, with an ambitious wife, after many laughable scenes, convinced the family that real happiness did not lie in the path of pretence and social ambition, but along the lines of honesty and kindly acts.

Of course, Aunt Susan was the central figure in the play, but she was ably supported by the other characters who acted their parts exceedingly well.

The pastor, Rev. H. S. Warren, on behalf of the Ladies' Aid, thanked the splendid audience for their generous patronage.

The following is the cast of characters:

Aunt Susan, Mrs. A. G. Savage. John Thomas Tibbs, Mr. G. H. Sloan. Mrs. Tibbs, Mrs. F. W. Grainger. Rebecca Jane, Mrs. Finch. Mary Alice, Mrs. T. Allison. Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Ramer. Miss Redlip, Miss O. Mortson. Caroline, Mrs. Comisky. The Hon. Samuel Smith, Mr. G. Lasher.

Mr. Gay De Marchmont Coggs, Mr. Harold Little.

Mrs. Johnston Highborn, Mrs. N. J. Glass.

Mrs. Linda Toggis, Mrs. Mylks.

Madame Pauline Wizer, Mrs. Petch.

Mrs. Weakly, Mrs. Davis.

Mrs. Sadden, Mrs. Burr.

Farming Extensions

You've probably felt at times that a frank discussion of your farm with some outside business man—unprejudiced, trustworthy and with a broad vision—would be of great benefit to you.

The local Manager of the Sterling Bank is just such a man. He will gladly help you in many ways. His varied knowledge is at your disposal. Have a talk with him—especially if you require funds for sound farming extensions.

Recalled Camp-Fire Days

A reunion of the Richmond Hill Campers was held in the Broadview Y. M. C. A. Monday evening, when 80 boys gathered at a banquet tendered by members of the Rotary Club and recalled camp-fire memories.

Ernest Chapman, physical director at St. Andrew's College, gave an interesting address on "The Race of Life," and toasts were proposed by the boys to the Rotary Club, the Camp, Broadview "Y" and the Ladies. There was much enthusiasm displayed and the gathering indicated that there would be a large attendance at the camp during the coming summer—if it comes.

BEWARE! YOU FUN LOVERS! REMEMBER WE WARNED YOU!

Now carefully note the following: The plan for reserved seats for The Roler-Boler Minstrels opened at Sloan's Drug Store on Saturday night, and before the evening was over one hundred and twenty five seats were disposed of now, if that number went the first night you can imagine what the plan looks like now—four days later. So if you wish to see the three big parts, full of pep and ginger, get busy right now. See the Big Minstrel first part, full of fun and music—then comes a vaudeville number full of mirth, magic and music—then, last of all, comes a comedy playlet entitled "Fun in a Vaudeville Agency."

Smoker and Euchre Party

A very enjoyable evening was spent by the curlers and their friends last Friday evening in the Council Chamber, when a smoker and progressive euchre party was held, and at the same time the various prizes and trophies were presented to the winners in the club competitions. The committee in charge spared no pains to make this the official closing of the season, an unqualified success.

Mr. Pugsley, in his usual happy manner, presented the Slater Cup to the winning rink, and in addition to the cup each individual player was presented with a handsome pipe.

Mr. Savage was chosen to present the prizes to the runners-up. They also, besides receiving the Smith Medal, were each presented with a pipe.

President, W. D. Scott, then asked the winners of the doubles to come forward, who he presented each of them with a beautiful I. O. O. F. ring, which will be prized very much by them as a memento of their good fortune in the curling season of 1922 and 1923.

Refreshments were then passed around, which of course were enjoyed by all, after which all wended their ways to their different homes, feeling the better man or having spent an hour or two in social good fellowship with their friends and neighbors.
