Membership Ticket Drive

Every residence, business house, office, factory, garage, etc., in Richmond Hill, will be called upon on Saturday to purchase a membership ticket (at $1.00) in the Richmond Hill Old Boys and Girls Association, said membership ticket to admit the holder to the grounds at any time on Monday and Tuesday, August 6th and 7th. Everyone should buy, and in this way have some small part in promoting the success of the Old Boys and Girls Re-Union. Funds are urgently needed by the Publicity Committee for the issuing of invitations, stamps, circulars, and other advertising matter. Time is getting short, so put your shoulder to the wheel in the above manner on Saturday and thus assist the committees in their work. Every husband should see to it that the wives have the "necessary" when the solicitors call. Thanks.

Who are the solicitors? Well, none other than the ever-ready Junior Cadets, all of whom are ready at all times to assist in any worthy cause, and this is one. The O.C. has detailed the following Cadets for the work, and has raised every one of them to the rank of full Corporal for past and present service rendered:

Cadet Corporal Pete Savage.
Cadet Corporal Louis Sims.
Cadet Corporal Lyle Grant.
Cadet Corporal Knoch Batt.
Cadet Corporal Donald Hick.
Cadet Corporal David Stirling.
Cadet Corporal Freddie Greene.
Cadet Sergeant Lambert Atkinson.
The above will all appear in full uniform for the occasion. Receive them kindly, and save an extra call from the Ticket Committee members.
All Cadets named above are asked to meet at the Sterling Bank office at 7 o'clock Friday evening.
