PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. W. M. Hay preached his farewell sermon last Sunday evening to a large and representative congregation. This discourse was a masterly one and showed his exceptional capabilities as a pulpit orator.

He mentioned briefly that he was going back to the Anglican church, and that this was his last sermon in a Presbyterian pulpit. He also bade a kind farewell to his congregation, the people of the sister churches, and the townspeople generally. The good wishes of the people of Richmond Hill go with him to his new field of usefulness.

Empire Day at P. S.

The Richmond Hill Public School gave a very interesting programme in the school grounds on Empire Day. A large number of parents and other friends were present, and thoroughly enjoyed the patriotic selections in song and recitations. A number of the pupils showed marked ability along the line of public speaking, their gestures and power of expression being very impressive. Encouraging addresses along school lines were given by Dr. Langstaff, chairman of the Board of Education; W. W. A. Trench, P. S. Inspector; and Rev. E. Kelly, member of the Board.

Principal Watson who presided thanked the parents for their attendance and loyal support. Ice cream furnished by the Home and School Club was served at the close.
