"But it remained for another artist to add the true Scottish touch. Wonderfully sweet and appealing was the singing of Jean Anderson Thibe. She has a magnetic personality, and a voice rich, deep, and vibrant as a silver bell. The day is near when she will be recognized as Canada's greatest Scottish soprano."—Toronto Globe.

It would be well for those in charge to see to it that the route of detour from Schomberg Junction to Temperanceville was water-sprinkled daily or have the road oiled. The residents along the road are complaining bitterly of the dust raised by the heavy traffic. The matter is up to the King Council or the road-building company.
