THAT BENE IT GAME

Everyone should purchase a ticket for the benefit game at the Park tomorrow (Friday) evening—6.30 Daylight Saving time. If you haven't purchased one from the ticket sellers, you may get them at Sloan's Drug Store, the Hotel Richmond, or at the Liberal Office. The cause is a worthy one. Charles Browning, Richmond Hill pitcher, had the misfortune to break his left collar bone while at practice a few weeks ago, and the Workmen's Compensation Act does not cover such cases. No married man can afford to be idle under such circumstances. Let us all rally to the good work. Tickets are 25 cents each.

W. C. T. U.

The Flower Mission, Department of the W. C. T. U., under the superintendency of Mrs. W. A. Wright sent a consignment of nineteen dozen peonies, besides quantities of Sweet William and other flowers to the Christie St., Hospital Toronto. This donation was much appreciated as the following letter of acknowledgement will show.

Christie St., Hospital,
Toronto, June 27th.
Mrs. W. A. Wright, Richmond Hill:
We greatly appreciate the kindness of the ladies in sending such a large donation of beautiful peonies and other flowers for the sick patients. All the wards of the Hospital have been made very bright and cheerful.

Re Water

The Waterworks Commission wish to notify the water users in the Village that steps are being taken to eliminate the present slight disagreeable taste noticeable in the town water, which is attributable to the presence of weeds in the reservoir. Officials of the Provincial Board of Health will visit the Waterworks this week for the purpose of removing the weeds, and the Commission are installing a much larger equipment for aerating the water supply, and would ask the consideration of the public for a few days when it is confidently expected that the quality of the water will have been brought up to its former high standard.
J. LUNAU,
Chairman of Waterworks Committee.

"SAY IT WITH FLOWERS"

A little Virginia-Creeper came to Live-for-Ever with Wild Rose, as she was fastening Bachelor Buttons on at Four o'clock. The Dandelion, in possession of the front lawn, felt the Baby's Breath in his presence and let out a roar that frightened the Phlox of Old Hen and Chickens that were scratching for a living near the Old Man. The Old Woman saw the Larks-spur the Cock's Comb and she dropped Sweet Pea, and yelled in the Elephant's Ear, "Johnny-Jump-Up." When the Chinese Aster if she was going to Marigold, Sweet William or the Dusty Miller, Black-eyed-Susan turned Pink and handed him a Butter-cup full of "white mule" made from Corn Flower, and applied Balsam to his Bleeding Heart with her Adder's Tongue. It being a foggy day, she accepted his Loyal-in-a-Mist, he placed the Bridal Wreath on her head and handed her a Touch-me not, which caused the Bluebells and Harebells to ring out in sympathy. Then along came Bouncing Betty in her Lady Slippers and Monk's Hood, carrying a Red-hot-poker to light the Dutchman's Pipe that had gone out when he was scolding his daughters, Lily, Daisy, Violet and Rose Mary for not obeying their Poppy. Job's Tears ran down his cheeks as he watched Jonquil and Daffy-o-Dilly wave a Flag when the Bull Rushes out, but accidents will happen, the Cow Slips on the Ice Plant and kills the Snap Dragon. Forget-me-not.
