Straw Stack on Fire

Citizens of Richmond Hill were aroused from their slumbers Sunday morning, shortly before 6 o'clock, by the ringing of the fire alarm. The fire was located in a straw stack on the Arnold farm, now occupied by Mrs. L. Curtis. Firemen and other citizens were soon on the spot, and by laying 900 feet of hose from a hydrant on Yonge Street near the Anglican church, were able to play on the burning straw. The stack was only ten feet from the barn, and as the fire started under the stack it was difficult to extinguish it. The stack had to be carried away by forks and spread in an adjoining field. Not until the middle of the afternoon was the fire completely under control. Mrs. Curtis and children had gone to Toronto the evening before to spend the week-end. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

York Ranger Cadets

The swimming pool is now completed, and for the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Brillinger in permitting the same to be built on their property the gratitude of the Cadets is expressed, as also to Mr. and Mrs. John Sheardown for their personal interest in hastening the work to completion. The O. C. hopes that every Cub of the Corps will learn to swim every care will be taken to see that the pool is made safe.

The O. C. has extended the privileges of the pool to the matron of the Orphanage, and who has assured the very great pleasure this will afford the young boys placed under her care. When the orphanage company are at the pool, Cadets must remember their duty as hosts and prove themselves to be gentlemen as the O. C. expects and demands of every Cadet, at all times.

Orders following re the Ceremonial for the Unveiling of the War Memorial on the Sunday of August the 5th. The O. C. expects to be obeyed to the letter. He is now conferring with the Committee as to the part the Cadets will take, and orders will follow in next week's issue of the Liberal.

The following dress order must be followed—Cubs, their regimental whites, will the Cadet mothers kindly see that the Cadets have their whites emaculate for this parade.

Juveniles, and Seniors, they will confer without delay with Cadet Capt. Bert Grant.

After the unveiling the Corps will be reviewed by Col. Clarke D. S. O., M.C., as also Major Gibson, D. S. O. the saluting base being in front of the Sterling Bank.

The Matron of the Orphanage is desirous of having eight of her boys on this parade and the O. C. is arranging to have them in the regimental whites. Cadets Stand to—the part that you

Get the glorious vision in your young lives of Service, and as they, so also serve, for greater love hath no man than this, that he lay down his life for his country, and which was our CANADA—your country.
