HELP! HELP!

A request has been made that any person who is prepared to take his auto out on Tuesday morning to give the Old Boys and Girls a motor ride around the Town and vicinity, kindly make it known to the secretary, Mr. L. Teetzel, before Tuesday, August 7.

Visit the McNair Farm

The Richmond Hill Horticultural Society by special invitation held their July meeting at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McNair, 2nd Concession of Vaughan, Tuesday evening. Between 30 and 40 members attended and very much enjoyed a walk around the lovely grounds and garden, with their well-kept hedges and choice flowers. After refreshments were served by the host and hostess a hearty vote of thanks was tendered on motion of Major Blainey and Mr. H. Davis. Mr. McNair responded, saying it was a pleasure to have the members present.

Be Hospitable

Hospitality is a wonderful thing. If you have one, two, or three vacant rooms in your house will you please notify Mr. Armand Savage at his office in the post-office building, or leave word at the post-office for him. There will be a great number of home-comers who will need a place to sleep, and the Hotel and the Inn will be unable to place them all. It is up to our citizens to look after our visitors and make them feel at home. Rooms will not include meals. Do it now—notify Mr. Savage.

J. Dummitt's Will

Joseph Dummitt, whose death in Richmond Hill, occurred on April 13, 1923, left an estate valued at $15,672. Moneys secured by mortgage constitute the greater part of the property, totalling $13,573. A house and lot at Richmond Hill is valued at $800. Book debts and notes amounted to $999. There are also $300 in furniture and household goods and $49 in the bank.

To Mary Dummitt, widow of the deceased, is bequeathed a life interest in the entire estate. On her death, Amos and Frank Dummitt, of Alberta, her sons, are to receive $500 and $200 respectively. The residue is to be equally divided between the four daughters, Caroline, Frances and Rispath, of Minden township, and Rose Collins, Holland Landing.

Daring Hold-Up

One of the most daring and cold-blooded robberies took place in the heart of Toronto, Jordan and Melinda Streets, Tuesday morning between 9 and 10 o'clock. A gang of bandits, armed with revolvers and shot guns held up bank messengers on their way to the clearing house, and robbed them of $83,000. Three men lie in the Hospital so severely wounded that their lives hang in the balance. The messenger of the Bank of Nova Scotia lost about $71,000, and the Sterling Bank about $12,000. The manager of the Sterling Bank in Richmond Hill informs us that the banks are fully protected from any possible loss by a blanket policy of insurance. The perpetrators of the appalling disaster got away with their booty in a high-power Studebaker car.

A Loyal Helper

Ontario Club, Toronto, July 21, 1923 Mr. L. B. Teetzel, Secy. R. H. O. B. & G. Assn. My Dear Sir: Many thanks for your recent circular announcing a Reunion of the the above Association, together with an Honorary Membership Ticket in the same.

While I realize that I will have passed from the memory of all but perhaps a corporal's guard in Richmond Hill, yet I still have a warm spot in my heart for the old town and will be greatly pleased to again meet those whom I knew when I was young.

If the spirit displayed in the circular is characteristic of that pervading the various committees responsible for the Reunion I feel that any suggestion from me would be superfluous, at the same time I am aware that considerable expense is always entailed in the preparation of such an event and I may perhaps be of some slight assistance there. If therefore it is not too presumptuous on my part, might I ask your acceptance of the enclosed cheque for $25.00 made payable to your treasurer to apply in any way your committee may think best.

Wishing you every success in your undertaking and trusting I may have the pleasure of meeting you on one of the dates mentioned.

I have the honor to be, yours sincerely

F. H. SHARLE.
