Sporting Notes

Saturday will be a big day for the girl ball-players. The big game at the park between the Kodak team of Toronto and the local young ladies, which commences at 3 o'clock sharp, will be a stubbornly contested affair. Don't miss it.

A CORN ROAST

The members of the Young Ladies Ball Team and their friends enjoyed a pleasant time together at Mackie's Flats, ferriest the C.N.R. Station, on Tuesday evening, the occasion being a Corn Roast tendered them by Mr. Norman Stevenson. Coffee, huns, and weiners were also supplied by the team. After all had done full justice to the repast in the pleasant glare of a large bonfire all repaired to the station grounds, where games were indulged in, the grounds having been lighted for the purpose by Station-Master Tracey. Dancing on the station platform was in order after the games. Mr. Harry Morden and Miss Blanche Grant taking turns at the piano. At 10 p.m. sharp all festivities were called off and the girls and their friends conveyed back to their homes by auto. The thanks of the manager, coach, and members of the team is hereby extended to Mr. Mackie for the use of the grounds, to Mr. and Mrs. Tracey for the use of their piano, their stove, and for other courtesies extended by them; to Messrs. Henry Burnett, Thos. Allison, Clarence Mylks, Kenneth Blanchard, and N. Price for the use of their autos to and from the station; and last, but by no means least, to Mr. Norman Stevenson for the donation of 25 dozen corn.

Mr. Duncan Writes Again

Sept. 10, 1923

Editor LIBERAL:

Why all the undue haste on the part of our council in receiving and accepting the petition to pave Yonge st. Why all the rush. Petitions have been presented before signed by sufficient ratepayers for needed improvements but never before were they acted on with such dispatch as this petition. They lie dormant for months.

Think of it—presented—received—accepted and acted on at one sitting. That's action for you. Hardly took time to read the petition, certainly did not understand it, did not even take time to ascertain that the requisite number of names were attached to it: "Be it resolved, that the said petition be and is hereby accepted, and that the Clerk and Engineer (James, I presume) be authorized to take the necessary steps to give effect to the petition, etc." From the report of the meeting.

They swallowed it. Hook, line, and sinker.

Later—On the night of Sept. 3rd. council met, and the aforesaid worthy petition was read and the information was forthcoming that the said legal document was short two names, (great oversight on the part of Mr. Legge, we wont employ him again), therefore not in order.

Also those councillors who supported it and sponsored it at the previous meeting expected the levy was to be 50% on the Yonge street frontage and 50% on the whole town, but discovered that the said just, worthy and charitable petition distinctly read, to be assessed only on Yonge st. frontage.

It's a joke—a burlesque—do you think for a moment that the councillors responsible for the acceptance of that petition would accept this kind of a deal in their own private affairs. Did they think the engineer, (James, I presume) would refuse to act on any future occasion; were they nervous that Legge would not accept the contract two weeks later. If so I think I am safe in saying their fears were groundless, at any rate I know the feeling of the ratepayers well enough to assure the council that even that catastrophe would have been met with fortitude.

Oh theres a reason alright and I dont think the ratepayers require much light on the subject.

We were sold a waterwork, and got a lemon, and as for anyone to unloose another proposition of the same kind on this town, it can't be done.

We're not bragging, its too serious for that, but we are going to stand together and give our village a square deal. Make it a place where the average good citizen who loves those old Anglo Saxon ideals of fair dealing, as much as hates exploitation, will want to reside, attractive, sanitary, modern a place, economical in which to live and profitable in which to do business.

Yours truly,
W. A. DUNCAN.
