A Wise Dog!

One day last week Mr. Cowie, in driving his milkwagon up Benson Avenue observed that his dog was carrying a parcel very carefully in his mouth. He called the dog to him and found it was a lady's purse containing between thirteen and fourteen dollars.
Mr. Cowie at once advertised the purse and soon found the owner. Those who lose money or articles need not despair. With Charlie's dog, and the Village newspaper you are tolerably sure of finding your own.

Mr. Innes Declines

To The Editor of the Liberal
Dear Sir:—
I noticed in the Liberal a short time ago that the Council had appointed me Building Inspector for the Village.
Now Mr. Editor, although the Council has not officially notified me of the appointment, I wish to state that my time is now fully occupied with my own business, and therefore respectfully decline to accept the position of Building Inspector. I trust the Council will have no difficulty in securing a man fully as competent as I would be and thanking you for the courtesy.
WM. INNES.

usual, teachers from the four inspectorates of York county will this fall hold their annual convention in Buffalo. They will inspect the schools of Buffalo and will hold their sessions in an auditorium which has been provided by the Buffalo school officials. This will be the first time that York teachers have held their convention outside of the county. At least 400 strong, they will leave Toronto by special train on October 18, and will return to Toronto on the evening of October 19.

MAPLE

On Sunday, Rev. T. Russel Harris, secretary of the Young People's Societies, of Toronto, preached in St.
Andrew's church. The singing was led by a juvenile choir, the adult choir being away taking part in anniversary services at Laskay.

Last Thursday evening Mrs. O'Brien of Vancouver, B. C., gave an address in St. Andrew's church picturing the horrors of the drug habit in that western city.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Wednesday of last week at the home of Mrs. T. O.

Re Yonge Street Paving

Richmond Hill, Sept. 17th, 1923.

To the Editor of The Liberal:

Dear Sir,—As I have just recently returned home after a two months' holiday, and as I forgot to have The Liberal sent me when I was away (which I regret very much, as I missed your paper, Sir, more than anything else) I am quite in the dark as to what has been going on in the old town during my absence, and I am writing this letter to see if anyone will be kind enough to enlighten me.

I have read one or two of Mr. Duncan's letters, which, to my mind, have been ridiculing our town council to some extent, but whether they have been ridiculous or inconsistent it is not for me to say; but in your report of the village council meeting of Sept. 3rd there is this item: "The Clerk reported that the petition for paving Yonge Street was not sufficiently signed under the Act in that regard. On motion of Monkman and Hill the petition was referred back for further signatures."

Now, Sir, in last week's paper Mr.
Duncan says that the petition just lacked two names to make it legal.

Am I to understand that if there had been two more names on the petition to re-pave Yonge Street and, I presume, to move the railway track into the centre of the roadway, that our council would have at once taken the necessary steps to proceed with the work without taking a vote of the ratepayers who are most vitally concerned in the matter, or, in other words, those property owners who will have to pay for the work?

In Mr. Duncan's letter he asserts "that the petition reads that the total cost is to be assessed on Yonge Street frontage." While I am not objecting to paying my fair and just share of any local improvement, Mr. Editor, I certainly do object to the council expend-ing $40,000, more or less, on half a mile of road when they cannot spend $100.00 or $200.00 on our back streets, which are a disgrace to any municipality. They say that they have no money to spend on the improvement of our streets; I have been told that more than once, Sir, by some of our council-
