The use of tobacco among a certain class of women appears to be on the increase. The Toronto dailies of Tuesday in referring to the Women's Jail Farm annoyances by the smuggling in of tobacco, said: "Fully 5) per cent of the women, were smoking every day, and it had gone so far that the women quarrelled over the amount of tobacco each one had in her possession."

GORMLEY

About 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon, during thrashing operations, fire broke out in a large barn belonging to William Smith, farmer, Gormley, and totally destroyed the building within a short time. The fire was first observed at the mouth of the blower of the thrashing machine, and had secured too firm a hold to be extinguished by the twelve men who were working in the stabling beneath the barn. Fortunately, all of Mr. Smith's stock was out in the fields, except three horses, which were rescued in the nick of time by the men. The cause of the fire is unknown. Mr. Smith lost approximately 1,500 bushels of grain, which represents his whole season's crop, as well as 25 tons of hay. It was found impossible to pull the thrashing machine out of the barn owing to the great heat, and it was also consumed. The machine belonged to Fred Hunt, a well-known local thrasher. The damage to the barn and driving sheds is estimated at $5,000 and the thrashing machine is valued at $1,500. There was a small insurance on the buildings and contents, and none on the thrashing machine.

Myself!

I have to live with myself, and so I want to be fit for myself to know. I want to be able, as days go by, Always to look myself straight in the eye. I don't want to stand, with the setting sun,

And hate myself for the things I've done. I don't want to keep on a closet shelf A lot of secrets about myself, And fool myself, as I come and go, Into thinking that nobody else will know The kind of a man I really am; I don't want to dress up myself in sham

I want to go out with my head erect—I want to deserve all men's respect; But here in the struggle for fame and pelf I want to be able to like myself. I don't want to look at myself and know That I'm bluster and bluff and empty show

I never can hide myself from me; I see what others may never see; I know what others may never know; I can never fool myself, and so, Whatever happens I want to be Self-respecting and conscience-free.

Rod And Gun

One of the treats in store for the sportsman in Rod and Gun in Canada in the October issue is a story by H. C. Duffes on "Bear Hunting up Bute Inlet, B. C." which is written in a particularly readable manner. Bonny-castle Dale has a good article on the "Virginian Deer of Nova Scotia," while an interesting account of a ten days' trip in a canoe is contributed by A. David Fraser. E. F. Ward has a story of a fishing trip in the Rockies while F. V. Williams, and Martin Hunter and others have good stories in this issue.

Select Your Color

A little girl timidly asked the drug clerk for a package of pink dye. "What do you want it for?" responded the clerk. "Woolen or cotton goods." "Neither," said the child. It's for ma's stomach. The doctor said she'd have to diet, and she wants it a pretty color." —Canadaink.
