Council Chamber and Court Room

Last week's Economist and Sun in reporting the cases at Division Court in Markham said that before opening the court Judge O'Connell commented on the untidy condition of the court room. Up to date His Honour has not made any uncomplimentary remarks about the court room in Richmond Hill, but in all seriousness the council chamber where court is held, is not a credit to the village. As citizens we become accustomed to it, but outsiders observe it with surprise,

Woodbridge Fair

Woodbridge Fair on Saturday went over the 10,000 mark in attendance, The fair was considered the best financial success to date. The exhibits of live stock were considered excellent. Grain and vegetables were well up to the standard, while the exhibition of fruits was better in all varieties than for many years, and with a great increased display. A pleasing interest in farm produce competions by a number of Public Schools was accredited to the work of various associated horti cultural societies. The judging of light and heavy horses as well as the speeding events, was continued until

Toronto's Winter Fair

All indications point to another success ul year for the Royal Winter Fair which will be an exposition of quality, merit and magnitude with many new features. This year's show will be a marvellous sight to behold and absorbing in interest; in fact the various exhibits requiring months to produce will unfold a very interesting human story. The Minister of National Defence has granted permission to the Royal Canadian Dragoons to give their famous musical ride every evening during the show.

The brilliant horse show and the nightly parade of prize livestock will be given in conjunction with other spectacular features. The citizens and visitors from outside points will find at this years Royal Winter Fair many things of interest to them. The Winter Fair represents a vast industry which touches each and every citizen whether they live in the city or in the rural sections,

At 7 p.m. Rev. A. MacNab will preach. Mr. MacNab is leaving next week to take charge of a congregation near Assiniboia for the winter months.

Mr. Hill's Tranks

Mr. D. Hill wishes to thank the Fire Brigade and citizens generally for so promptly turning out Tuesday evening, when the roof of his dwelling took fire from a burning chimney. Many of our citizens were naturally alarmed when the "fire" bell sounded, but not only Mr. Hill, but residents generally felt a sense of security when they knew we had a new water system.

Sloan-Bowman

On Wednesday evening, the 17th inst., at "Brooklands," the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Bowman, their only daughter, Miss Elizabeth Anne, was united in marriage to Mr. Gordon Hamilton Sloan, son of Mrs. W. Hewison of Richmond Hill.

The drawing room was beautifully festooned with gelden autumnal bloom, huge banks of ferns on each side of the spacious fire place, faultlessly completing the decorative scheme, for the marriage ceremonial, which was performed by the Rev. Mr. Noble, of Trinity Church, Thornbill.

To soft orchestral strain of "Lohengrin's beautiful wedding march," the winsome bride entered the drawing room with her father, gorgeously attired in a gown of white kitten's ear crepe, with long court her long flowing tulle veil, daintily atic and Humourous Sketches, arranged with a wreath of orange blossoms, and carrying a show r bouquet of lillies of the valley and pink roses. Miss Mary Mayer, of Toronto the bridesmaid, was stunning in wood brown chiffon cut velvet with train, further complete with gold bandeau and shoes, and she carried an armful of yellow roses, tied with golden tulle. Dr. Milton Wellwood of Richmond Hill attended the groom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held, Mrs. Bowman, mother of the bride, being charmingly gowned in black canton crepe, trimmed with silver, with corsage of yellow roses, while Mrs. Hewison, mother of the groom, was handsomely gowned in pearl grey canton crepe, with steel trimming, and corsage of orchids and lillies of the valley.

The buffet supper, which was followed by a dance, was served in the dising room, the table being beaut fu'y and profusely bedecked with pink bridal roses and maiden hair fern, after which the bride and groom left for their honeymoon in Washington, the bride travelling in a dark brown marvella suit trimmed with kolinsky, brown hat and shoes.

Upon their return from their honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sloan will take up residence in their new home on Richmond Street, Richmond

The guests attending were, of Toronto, Mrs. M. M. Mayer, Miss Mayer, Mr. and Mrs. J. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Grills, Mr. and Mrs. J. Green, Miss Green, Mr. and Mrs. T. #### Re Charivaris club for the coming winter will be held in the Council Chamber Friday evening Dear Sir, - Your pungent remarks re charivari parties are very time y.

You do well to call the attention of the people generally, and some in particular, to the evils pertaining to this pernicious practice. They little know the aftermath of their indulgence, otherwise they would be more wary. The lustre obtained by becoming a slave to charivari is dimmed by the after-effects. You can only hope that your timely warning, broadcasted to those who are impregnated with the germs of charivari, will give heed, and that they wili return to the straight and natrow path. By the way, what is charivari? Anxiously awaiting enlightenment,

I am, Sir, Yours very truly, A. ROLFE.

TORSES LOST - One black mare I with white face owned by M. GUTHRIE, Vandorf, P. O. One brown mare with scar on front foot, owned by A. Burrows, Vandorf P. O. A good reward will be paid to anyone finding these horees and notifying the owners.
