

Welcome next Tuesday, October 30, to Grand Supper and Bazaar in Victoria Hall, Toronto.

Mrs. John S. Howat, of Thamesville, has returned home after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sims.

Get your fur coat through E. R. Fortner, direct from one of the best wholesale furriers, and save money. Every skin guaranteed.

Mrs. Andrews, of Massey, Ont., is at present in town, being called here by the serious illness of her father. Mr. E. Grant, of the Hotel Richmond.

The Methodist Church Choir are preparing for a tea and concert on Thanksgiving night, Nov. 12. A good programme of the very best talent. Keep this date open.

A meeting of the Richmond Hill Lawn Bowling Club will be held at the home of Mrs. A. G. Savage, Monday evening, Oct. 29, at 8 o'clock. The question of indoor bowling will be considered.

Mr. W. E. Brewster, of Barrie, manager of the Bell Telephone Company of Canada, was in the village Tuesday, calling on users of the telephone and suggesting improvements in the service.

"The Wonderful Heroine," a beautiful picture given with a year's subscription to The Family Herald and Weekly Star, is attracting a lot of attention. The Family Herald is $2 a year, but Liberal subscribers can get the paper and the picture for $1.75. Subscribe at The Liberal Office.

Most of the teachers of the Public School attended convention, Thursday and Friday of last week. For a change the teachers were taken to Buffalo in order that American teaching methods and schools might be observed. Those who returned report a very pleasurable and profitable time.

A Halloween box social will be held next Monday night, Oct. 29th, in the League rooms of the Methodist church. All ladies kindly secure boxes from one of the League members, or from Sims' store. Kindly provide lunch for two. A splendid programme has been provided. Come to the League and have a good time.

The Ladies aid of the Methodist Church, will have a shower of Handkerchiefs or any useful article for the Bazaar, on Friday, Oct. 26th in the school room of the church. Afternoon tea will be served from three to six for the small sum of fifteen cents. Ladies of the congregation and all others interested are cordially invited.

METHODIST CHURCH

The themes of the services in the Methodist Church on Sunday, Oct. 28, are as follows:—
11 a. m.—"Friendship with Jesus."
7 p. m.—"Friendship with Others."
A Cordial Invitation.

King and Vaughan Plowing Match

The officers and directors of King and Vaughan Plowmen's Association announce their annual plowing match to be held this year on the farm of Mr. M. Wilkie, half a mile west of Nobleton, on Friday, November 2. Splendid prizes are being offered in nine classes. The ladies of the community will furnish free lunches to the plowmen, and meals will be served in the town hall at Nobleton.

Rod And Gun

The November issue contains a dozen good stories and articles for the sportsman, while all the regular departments, "Guns and Ammunition," "Along the Trapline," "Outdoor Talk," "Fishing Notes" and "Kennel," are full of interest and information. F. V. Williams, J. W. Winson, and Martin Hunter well-known to readers of Rod and Gun in Canada have all contributed good articles which will be enjoyed. From cover to cover, this issue is packed with interest for everyone keen on any chase of hunting and fishing or outdoor life.

Home and School Club

Parents and friends of the children are earnestly requested to attend the social evening and shower to be held in the Public School, Tuesday evening, Oct. 30th, at eight o'clock.

The shower is in aid of the Hot Drink supplies for the coming winter. Coca, sugar, and money to buy milk will be welcomed. The hot drink served through the cold months last winter, to the children who stayed for lunch every day, was felt to be a great benefit, and it is hoped may be carried out again this year.

Mr. Watson has kindly consented to show some interesting pictures with the school lantern, and Major Blaney will direct the singing of some well known songs by the whole meeting. Refreshments will be served. Everybody welcome.

A Great Story Year

A golden sheaf of stories is in preparation for 1924 readers of The Youth's Companion. There will be stories of Western ranch life and thrilling adventure; stories of gumption in getting a job and making a success at it; stories of lively scrimmages on the athletic field—football, baseball; stories of girls in school and college and working their way in the world of business; stories of the old farm folks down in Maine, told inimitably by C. A. Stephens; stories of Caleb Peaslee's shrewdness and horse sense; stories of resourcefulness and pluck in situations of danger and extremity; stories of the sea and mountains—stories to please every fancy of old readers and young, for readers who love the story of character and for those who like best the story of swift action. It will be a great year in the history of The Youth's Companion.

The 52 issues of 1924 will be crowded with serial stories, short stories, editorials, poetry, facts and fun. Subscribe now and receive:

1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues in 1924.
2. All the remaining issues of 1923.
3. The Companion Home Calendar for 1924.
4. Or include McCall's Magazine, the monthly authority on fashions. Both publications, only $3.00.
