

Report of Ratepayers' meeting and other matter unavoidably crowded out till next issue.

Remember the Scotch Concert in the Presbyterian Church, November 30. Further notices later.

Visitors from Toronto over the holiday included Mr. and Mrs. Crowhurst at Mrs. Ramers, and Miss Edith Morrison at Mrs. Petch's.

Keep the dates open—Friday and Saturday, December 14 and 15—and attend the R. C. Bazaar and Fowl Supper at Elgin Mills Pavilion.

L. O. L. parade to the Methodist Church next Sunday evening. Sermon by the pastor, Rev. H. S. Warren. Brethren are expected from the District and County.

Dr. J. N. Hutchison, of Winnipeg, on his way to St. Mary's to visit a brother who is ill, made a short stay in Richmond Hill, and called on a number of old friends.

St. John's Church Bazaar will be held in the Oak Ridges School House, Friday, November 23. Supper from 6 to 7.30 p.m. Concert at 8 o'clock. Tickets, 50 and 25 cents.

The undersigned wish to return thanks to all those who assisted in the Memorial Service at the Public School on Sunday morning last.—(Signed) T. H. Trench, Reeve; J. A. Greene, Chairman.

The Liberal is sending out accounts for subscriptions and printing, and we hope there will be a prompt response. Those in arrears will oblige by remitting, as "dunning" does not appear to be in our line.

Mr. James McDonald, of Mill street, driving down Yonge street last Friday, offered a ride to Mrs. Dickenson and her two daughters. The car swerved and overturned into a deep ditch. The four occupants were badly injured.

Miss Iris Woodhead delighted the vast audience of the Dreadnought Chapter, I.O.D.E. with her singing and dancing at their 4th annual Armistice Ball, held in the Crystal Ball-Room at the King Edward Hotel, on Monday, November 18th.

Anniversary and Free Will Offering in the Headford Methodist Church next Sunday. Rev. Basil Thompson, M.A., Trinity Methodist Church, Toronto, will preach in the morning, and Rev. Wesley Dean in the evening. Music in the morning by Carrville Church, and by the home choir in the evening.

Merchants are reminded that on Jan. 1st the war tax on counter check books will be increased to 6 per cent. Money may be saved by ordering ahead. There will doubtless be a rush toward the end of the year. Don't leave off too late and then be disappointed. The Liberal has an agency for the best counter check book houses, and you get exactly the same price from us as from a traveler or right from the factory. We would appreciate your orders.

The annual Rally of the Northern Epworth Leagues will be held in Richmond Hill Methodist Church on Tuesday evening, November 20th, at 8 o'clock. The main feature of the evening is an Oratorical Contest; subject, "The Young People's Task with Regard to the Church," the speakers being from Victoria Square, Carrville, Thornhill, and Richmond Hill. The musical part of the programme will be given by the Executive of Toronto Central District. We are hoping to see every League well represented.

Richmond Hill Methodist Church, W.M.S., cards for each child for Thanksgiving, also bouquet of mums for a very sick child.
The Misses Plawman, Langstaff, Paris, Shepherd, Oowie, and McNab, gave the 98 little ones a real Thanksgiving party, which was very much enjoyed by all, about 50 of the little ones were entertained in the afternoon, with games and music, and beautiful refreshments, and in the evening the elder children were entertained. The children are very grateful to these young ladies for the pleasant time they had, and the Matron also wishes to thank them very much, as it was no easy task they undertook and so ably carried out.

We are glad to say at present there are only two sick in the home and they are safely on the way to recovery. The children attended the Presbyterian Church last Sunday, and hope to attend the English Church on Sunday next if weather permits.
