One new Webster's Unabridged Dictionary for sale at half price at The Liberal Store. Such a work should be in every well regulated family. A good dictionary settles many a dispute.

The Rose Exhibition at the Royal Winter Fair, was one of the attractions this year, and as usual the display of our Mr. Dunlop had many admirers. The Rose Display was pronounced—Wonderful.

The Rexall line includes, Medicine, Drugs, Stationery, Rubber goods, Candy, and many other household goods, at Sloan's.

Mr. Shiro Takizawa, a young Japanese student, at Victoria College, will address the League on December 10th, second Monday in December. This promises to be an interesting meeting. Keep the date open.

Read the One Cent Sale at Sloan's Drug Store, Thursday, Friday and Sat. of this week. The line includes such articles as toilet soap, candy and many household necessities. As explained in the adv., buyers get two articles for the price of one—plus 1 cent. Be sure and call not later than Saturday.

John H. Dunlop & Son, of this Village, were again successful prize winners at the Royal Winter Fair, being awarded Silver challenge cup offered by the Ontario Rose Society; also first for the display of roses covering 144 square feet. The exhibits were greatly admired and would do credit at any exhibition on the continent.

MARRIAGES

CRUICKSHANK-ATKINSON—At Richmond Hill, Nov. 14th, by Rev. W. J. Smith, of Bathurst Street Methodist Church, Toronto, Miss Ethel Mae Atkinson, to Mr. Alex. W. Cruickshank, both of Richmond Hill.

CARD OF THANKS

The undersigned wish to return heartfelt thanks to their many friends (also to the members of the Masonic Order of Richmond Hill, Bmsdale and Sutton) for their many tokens of respect, sympathy, and help, during our recent sad bereavement.

MRS. EZRA GRANT and FAMILY.

New Drug Store

There has been a complete transformation in the Moodie building. Plate glass windows, electric lights and other improvements have converted this place into a splendid Drug Store which was opened last Saturday by Mr. G. H. Glenn. The opening day was a busy one, when every visitor received a handsome writing tablet as a souvenir. Monday was children's day, and needless to say the new store had hundreds of callers and well wishers.

Donations Received

The Matron and Children of the True Blue and Orange Home very gratefully acknowledge with thanks the following donations received.

Mrs. Vanderburg, bag of apples.
Miss Burr, vegetables.
Mr. Morden, basket apples.
Mrs. Ransom, 3 toques.
Ladies of Presbyterian, church, treat of cake.

There are now 50 girls in the home, ages from 2 to 14, and 55 boys, ages 2 to 14. Some very sad cases have recently been admitted. Children attended St. Mary's Church on Sunday last and much enjoyed the service, which was especially arranged for them. The correct postal address for the home is R.R. 1, Richmond Hill.

Mrs. Fred Miller Dead

Mrs. Frederick H. Miller, wife of the former reeve of York Township, and a member of one of the oldest families in the county, passed away Thursday morning shortly after 5 o'clock at the family residence, on Lauder avenue, following a long illness. About a year and a half ago Mrs. Miller was stricken by the malady which terminated fatally. She was a daughter of the late John Anderson, of Fairbank, and practically the whole of her life had been spent in that district. She is survived, besides her husband, by two daughters, Edna and Elma, and one son, Fred, together with her aged mother, 94 years of age, who, with a maiden sister, resides in Fairbank. The other members of the family are: Mrs. Harry Broadbelt and Mrs. Andrew Watt, John, George and Thomas, brothers, all of Fairbank, and James, residing in Yorkton, Sask. She was a member for many years of the Fairbank Methodist Church, and latterly of St. Clair Methodist Church.
