J. & M. Stein wish their many customers in Richmond Hill and surrounding district the "Seasons Compliments." And thank them for their patronage.

Applications are invited from members of the various church choirs and all others interested in choral work, for membership to the Richmond Hill Choral Society now forming. Membership fee is $1. Rehearsals to start early in January. Applications may be sent to Miss Margery Atkinson, 38 Sussex St., Toronto.

Surely, Toronto need a new Post Office, and more room for the distribution of mail matter. Newark newspaper published on Thursday did not reach Richmond Hill until the following Monday. And phone messages on Monday from Gormley and other places stated that The Liberal bundle had not yet arrived. Doubtless they were held up in the City.

IN MEMORIAM

DARLING—In loving memory of our dear Nephew, John, who fell asleep, December 30, 1922.
A light is from their household gone, A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in their home The world can never fill.
He was too pure for this cold world, Too beautiful to stay,
And so God's holy Angles bore Their dearest one away.
Aunt Violet, Uncle Sam and Cousins.

FOR SALE—25 pullets Baffed rocks, laying. MRS. L. SMITH, Elgin Mills. 25-27

THORNHILL

The Thornhill Methodist Sabbath School is certainly an institution of long standing. On Sunday, December 30, they purpose holding their 84th anniversary. The pastor Rev. Fralick, will address the school at the morning service, and in the evening Mr. John Empringham, president of the Toronto Conference, Young People's League, will give an address. On the following Tuesday evening, January 1, an interesting drama, "Alice in Wonderland" will be presented under the training of Miss Marguerite Boyle.

The public school closed on Friday afternoon with an interesting concert, of choruses, recitations, solos and instrumental selections. Quite a number of visitors were present and all expressed themselves as well pleased with the entertainment. After the programme came the distribution of presents when every pupil received a gift. The pupils of the senior room presented their teacher with a handsome, gold-mounted, initialed fountain pen, and an address, and Miss Bird, teacher of the junior room received quite a number of gifts from her pupils.

One day last week Mr. Fred Ground had a narrow escape from being badly injured; As it was he received a severe shaking up, and some very bad bruises. He was driving down Morgan's hill when an auto coming behind ran into his wagon and upset it, throwing him to the hard pavement. The horses got away but were soon caught and parts of the wagon were broken.
