Short Courses Held Banquet

A Banquet of unusual importance and success was held at Richmond Hill on Thursday evening, being one of the last events in the month's short courses in Agriculture and Domestic Science and Home Nursing. One hundred and twelve young people comprising students and their guests enjoyed a most sumptuous supper which had been arranged in the basement of the Presbyterian Church, the tables being tastefully decorated to suit the occasion. The Girls Course arranged the menu, also provided the supper.

A short toast list followed the banquet. Following the toast to "His Majesty the King," Mr. F. W. Present, O. A. C. Guelph, proposed the toast to York County. Mr. Present dealt briefly with the many successes of York's Junior Farmers and also made mention of the many herds and possibilities of a county so suitably situated. This toast was most ably replied to by the President of York County Junior Farmers, Mr. Ross Anderson, of Edgeley. Reeves Trench and Gohn complimented the classes on the successful banquet and hoped that these courses would benefit the rural districts.

Mr. J. McLean in his characteristic genial manner proposed the toast to the classes, which was responded to by Miss Grace Duncan, Unionville and Clarence Graham, Maple. The toast to "The Ladies" proposed by a recently discovered orator, Byron Hill, Queensville, and responded to by Miss Phillips was a most successful number on the programme.

The Leap Year toast to "The Boys" was handled most ably by Miss Ethel Chapman and Capt. H. Morde. Two delightful violin solos lending the artists touch to the evenings programme, were tastefully rendered by Miss Atkinson.

A competition ran throughout the course in Stock Judging the winners being 1st—Nelson Boynton, 2nd—Jaek Frisby, 3rd—Clarence Graham and Fraser Gee (tie) 5th George McCague. The prize for the most complete set of notes went to Byron Hill. In recognition for the excellent lectures in nursing, Miss Graydon was the recipient of a beautiful piece of china. The classes then retired to the auditorium of the public school to spend the remainder of the evening in cards and dancing.

The classes spent Friday visiting industrial plants in the city of Toronto.
