THE STING

There's the sting of a snake;
There's the sting of deceit;
There's the sting of a bee;
There's the sting of defeat;

There's the sting of joy;
There's the sting of sorrow;
There's the sting of death
Which may come to me row—

But the worst of all stings,
(Caused by a finger),
Is the back-biting sting
Of the scandal-monger.

The above three verses, composed by yours truly, expresses the Truth, the whole Truth and nothing but the Truth. The writer writes from an experience of some months back. The fang of the back-biter has been felt by him on more than one occasion. Patience has ceased to be a virtue with him and he now ceases all active participation in any endeavor, be it sports or otherwise. He now retires from the ranks of the booters, but will not join that of the knockers, back-biters, or whisperers. He earnestly wishes success to the town, the new Arena, and to every sporting aggregation in the town, be they men or women, boys or girls—SUCCESS TO YOU ALL—but beware of the back-biter and whisperer.

ROBERT JOHNSTON.

5000 Facts About Canada

The public will welcome the new issue of "5000 Facts About Canada" for 1924—That remarkable cyclopedia of the Dominion compiled by Frank Yeigh, of Toronto, the well-known Canadian writer and lecturer. Over fifty chapters deal tersely with every phase of our national prosperity and progress, and is not only a mine of valuable information, but a stirring story of our development. This issue includes much new matter, and contains many other improvements. We are not surprised that this booklet has a continent, empire and worldwide circulation, or that it is widely used by governments, railways, and financial and industrial houses. Copies may be had at 30 cents each from the Canadian Facts Publishing Co., 588 Huron St., Toronto, or from leading newsdealers.

Mr. Stock Owner:

Dear Sirs—If I can prove to you that I guarantee every head of stock that you own, without extra cost to you, by using one of the best products of this kind on the market, would you be interested? If so, see our representative, or his local agents, Wesley Boynton and R. E. Michael, who will sell you the best known conditioner on the market to-day, and a guarantee marked direct from the company FREE TO YOU, for the market value of all your stock in case of death by natural causes known among these animals. This does not cover Accident or Fire and Lightning.

A. G. SAVAGE, of the
ACME STOCK SALT COMPANY

Our agent will be around to see you, or call at his office at Richmond Hill.
