METHODIST CHURCH

The theme of the Morning Service in the Methodist Church, on Sunday, March 2nd, will be "Internationalism and the Christian Ideal." The theme of the evening, "The Wages of sin." The League of the Methodist Church extends congratulations to their two debaters, Mr. Gordon Sloan and Mr.
Newell Peice, who so successfully upheld the Affirmative in the debate with Broadway League, the subject of which was, "Resolved that a Protective Tariff is better for Canada." To be able to make a "tie" with Broadway debaters, who for the past two years have won the laurels from all other contestants, reflects great credit upon our Richmond Hill boys. Success in future contests.

Presbyterian W. M. S.

The regular monthly meeting of the W. M. S., of the Presbyterian church was held on Thursday, Feb. 21, in the school room of the church.

An excellent paper on "The Claims of India" was written by Mrs. W.
Snedden, and read by Mrs. J. W.
McIntosh.

Mrs. Snedden in her paper impressed on our minds the threefold shadow that rests on the Girlhood of India,
"Child marriage," "Child-motherhood"
"Child-widowhood." A triple problem which all members of the Women's Missionary Society will have to think of and deal with very seriously.
A number of curios used in Hindu worship were shown.
A solo was sung by Mrs. John Palmer.

Banquet No. 2.

Notwithstanding the disappointment in Sir Adam Beck not being able to get to Richmond Hill Wednesday evening of last week, the Board of Trade banquet was a very pleasant and successful function. The school room of the Methodist church where the banquet was held was tastefully decorated, the tables were well arranged, and the beautiful roses donated by Mr. Arnold of the Bedford Park Greenhouses, added much to the beauty of the other decorations in red and white.
Little wonder was it that in the speeches which followed, the Ladies Aid were complimented on their supper and general arrangement.

Mr. J. McLean, President, after expressing his regret that the chief speaker for the evening was unable to be present, and thanking those present for turning out in such large numbers, he handed the programme over to Mr. W. H. Pugsley who acted as toast-master. After "The King" was duly honored, he referred to the days of old when we had no electric light and other conveniences which we now enjoy.

The first toast proposed was "The Clergy," responded to by Rev. H. S.
Warren and Rev. J. W. McIntosh.

Reeve Trench proposed "The Village Council," responded to by Councillors Greene, Eadean, and Mr. Hume, Clerk.
Other toasts were: "Board of Education," by Dr. Langstaff, A. McCague and Inspector W. A. Trench; "Ratepayers," by L. Teetzel; "Horticultural Society," by Mr. George Gee and Miss Moyle; "Sports," by H. Eadean and H. Murphy; "The Ladies," by Mr.
Hume, responded to by Mrs. Warren.
The speeches were interesting and often witty.

Musical selections by the Orchestra, Miss Aileen Atkinson, Mr. L. Glass, Capt. Morden and Mrs. N. J. Glass added much to the enjoyment of the evening.

Before closing, Mr. Arnold, seconded by Reeve Trench, moved a vote of thanks to the Ladies Aid and the entertainers, which was unanimously carried.

Young People's Society

The School Room of the Presbyterian church was well-filled on Monday night, when Professor Greaves, of Victoria University, delivered his lecture on "How to Speak in Public." Those who attended anticipated an unusual treat, but it is quite safe to say the reality went far beyond their anticipations. It was evident from the beginning of the address that the speaker has mastered the art of which he spoke, and has learned how to convey important truths in an impressive and engaging manner. Young and old were alike enthralled and the vote of thanks so humorously proposed by Bert Grant, and seconded by R. H., represented the hearty sentiment of the whole audience. President A.
MacNabb occupied the chair and carried the meeting through in a very satisfactory manner. The Y. P. S. have earned a reputation far exceeding their promises in the programme they present and those behind the scenes affirm that this reputation will be well sustained in the Dramatic evening arranged for Wednesday, March 5, "The Minister's Bride" is the title of the Play to be presented. We would advise those who wish to see it to purchase tickets in advance as the accommodation is limited.

Here's the Happy Paperhanger!

He's tapping off the selvage from a roll of STAUNTON SEMI-TRIMMED WALLPAPER and the reason he's happy is that he will do his work in far less time and his customer will be completely satisfied with the room when it is finished.

The patterns of these papers are all in the newest vogue and the colourings are superb. Whether your fancy lights on a wallpaper that is the very self of an embroidered brocade, a hand-wrought tapestry, or a gay chintz, across the room, you will not be able to tell if it is really wallpaper, so perfect, so veritable is the likeness to the fabric it simulates.

Let us show you our New Samples.
