Sporting Notes

Wychwood Girls will be in town tomorrow (Friday) night.

You will be interested in seeing the Toronto Senior Championship Girls in action at the Arena tomorrow (Friday) evening. They will meet a Picked Team of Girls from Richmond Hill and Thornhill, four from each town. The affair is in aid of the R. H. Young Ladies Hockey Club. See ads. in this issue; also small bills.

A big treat is in store for hockey fans at the Arena tonight (Thursday) in the form of a burlesque hockey match and box social, but the box social will be no burlesque. The affair promises to be the first circus visiting Richmond Hill this year, and one price will take you all the way through. See bills, and don't miss the "big noise."

The Richmond Hill Seniors won the first of the home and home games, for possession of the York Radial Cup and the championship, on Thursday evening last, at the local Arena, defeating Aurora by a score of 3 to 2. The boys deserved to win on the evening's play. The return game, and the final one, was played at Aurora last night (Wednesday), resulting in a score of 10-1 in favor of Aurora, they winning the round, the cup, and the championship by a score of 12 to 3.

A double-header took place at the local ice arena on Monday evening last. The first game was played between Thornhill and Aurora midgets, and was won by Aurora by a score of 3-1. The beautiful Sterling Bank cup goes to the winner for the present year. Thornhill's defence is a splendid one, but the forward line can stand all kinds of improvement. The second game was the first of home-and-home games for the junior championship of the Metropolitan League, the contesting teams being Richmond Hill and Aurora. The score resulted in a tie, 2 all. The return game will be played at Aurora tomorrow (Friday) night. Follow the boys and cheer them on to victory.

The Richmond Hill hockey girls surprised their most ardent supporters on Friday evening last when they held the Parliament Buildings Girls team of Toronto to a 3-1 score in an hour's play. Most of the local girls had never taken part in a hockey game before, and even the handling of a hockey stick was new to some of them. They brought credit to themselves and the town in their first game, and bid fair to make an excellent showing next season. The following young ladies took part in the game: Misses C. M. Welsh, Mary Topper, Mabel Patton, Bertha Ireland, Daisy Hart, Vic Hunt, Lillian Harding, Marjorie Tyndall, Dorothy McDonald, Olive Mortson, Mrs. Middleton, and Misses Findlay and Smillie of Thornhill.
