Figures that Talk

Mr. W. E. Raney, whose figures and facts are seldom challenged, gives us, in "Toronto Star," some convincing O.T.A. arguments. He takes the jails in the 12 representative County towns of Barrie, Belleville, Brockville, Chatham, Fort Francis, Kingston, Kitchener, Napanee, North Bay, Peterboro, Port Arthur and Sudbury, and contrasts the commitments for drunkenness for 1913, 1914 and 1922.

1913	2,364
1914	3,042
1922	427

The city figures are not so startling, but they tell the same story. Here they are for Toronto, Hamilton, Ottawa and London.

1913	4926
1914	4523
1922	2523

Young People's Society

The Y. P. S. of the Presbyterian Church held a business meeting on Monday night. Arrangements were completed for the visit to the Epworth League next Monday. There is to be a Geography contest and a spelling match, the latter being based on the Epistle to the Hebrews. An enjoyable evening is anticipated.

W. M. S.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church will hold a special Easter meeting on Wednesday evening, April 16th, at 8 o'clock. An interesting feature of the meeting will be an address by Mrs. Norman, who, along with Dr. Daniel Norman, is home on furlough, from their Mission Field in Japan. As both Dr. and Mrs. Norman have a great number of friends here, no doubt she will have a large audience to listen to her relation of the story of their life and work in Japan, and to renew old time friendship with her. All are welcome to attend this meeting to hear Mrs. Norman.

The Stand-Patter

"Why can't you let well-enough alone? Temperance sentiment is growing. Nobody now wants the old saloon."—Thus says the Stand-Patter. Just look him square in the face and say—"Temperance sentiment is growing? What did you ever do to make it grow? The old saloon is gone? Were you with those who beat it out? Or were you sitting on the fence looking on?"

If he tells the truth, 999 times out of 1000 he will have to admit that he didn't help with $1.00 of his money, or an hour of his time. Indeed, a goodly section of his class clung to the old saloon boat, till it turned bottom side up.

County Prizes Awarded

The committee who had charge of the W. C. T. U. Essay and Poster contest, which took place in the High and Public Schools here a short time ago, were much gratified on learning this week that three of our Richmond Hill pupils had been successful in carrying off some of the prizes in the County contest. These prizes are given by the York and Peel County W.C.T.U. and the contest is open to any High or Public School in York and Peel. The first prize for High School Essay, for the County was awarded to Isabel Wiley. Allen Duncau won the second prize for fourth book essay, and Jean Hall first prize for third book. These first prize essays have been forwarded for competition in the Provincial W. C. T. U. Contest.

York County Judging Contest

The Junior Women and Junior Farmers will hold their respective judging contests at Aurora, on Monday, April 14th, commencing at 9.30 a.m. The ladies will be expected to report at the Town Hall, while the boys will make their entries at the Queens Hotel.

Four classes of live stock will be judged in the town during the forenoon, the afternoon judging to take place on the farm of Mr. Geo. Petch, east of Aurora.

This is the first year an attempt has been made to conduct a Ladies Judging contest. Miss Slicer, of the Women's Institute is conducting afternoon classes at several points in the County, coaching the girls in the judging of classes of bread, cake, school lunches and house dresses. This promises to be a most enthusiastic contest. Cash prizes are offered in each class, besides two championship prizes of free trips to the Chicago International.

Similar prizes to previous years are offered in the Boys contest. The Women's Institute of Aurora will be catering for the banquet.

Business is Better

WE know that business is better and we view the future with quiet confidence because we have faith in Canada.

Therefore because of this, and because of the strong and stable position we enjoy today, due to a rigid policy of conservative management, we are prepared to extend generous support to concerns whose financial position and policies are sound.
