Masonic At Home

A pleasant social function was held in Masonic Hall last evening when the members entertained their wives and lady friends at their annual Ladies Night At Home. In the early part of the evening the members and guests were received by the Worshipful Master, Mr. H. H. Lang, and Mrs. Lang, and after a social hour all were invited to the lower hall where refreshments were served. The songs and musical selections were much enjoyed. Potted plants from the Green-houses did much to beautify the appearance of the Lodge Room, and the refreshment hall was tastefully decorated.

The entertainment consisted of piano solos by Miss Butt; soprano solos by Miss Ina Scott; violin selections by Miss Helen Stapleford; comic songs by Mr. Bert Lloyd; and clog dancing by Miss Mabel Cottrell.

During the evening a hearty vote of thanks was moved by Mrs. T. F. McMahon, seconded by Mrs. A. L. Phipps, expressing on behalf of the ladies their appreciation of the evening's entertainment. W. Bro. Lang replied assuring the ladies that the Masons looked forward with a great deal of pleasure to this annual social event.

On motion of Wor. Bro. T. H. Trench, seconded by V. Wor. Bro. T. Lamont, R. Wor. Bro. J. H. Dunlop was warmly thanked for the beautiful roses donated, and for the valuable assistance rendered on all Masonic occasions. Bro. H. Mordey was also thanked for the artistic decorations of the hall. A very pleasant evening was brought to a close by a dance.

THORNHILL

A very interesting address was given to Thornhill Horticultural Society, Tuesday evening of last week, by Prof. Tomlinson, of Guelph. A number of very fine slides showing arrangement of shrubs, flowers and evergreens for lawns and flower beds, were very interesting and were enjoyed by all present.

Thanks Expressed

Capt. Harty Mordey would take this opportunity of graciously thanking all those who so kindly assisted in making of the Easter Parade the success that it was, both by way of patronage with the prevailing most inclement weather conditions, and also by support otherwise. While financially the returns were disappointing the success truly rewarded the hard effort put forth by the Cadets. To the truly artistic decoration of the interior of the hall, carried out in the regimental colours, is due to Cadet Capt. Bert Grant, who was assisted by Sgt. Cadet Woodhead, Allan Duncan, Donald Hick, David Stirling, Pete Savage, and Freddie Greene. An appreciation is also expressed to Mr. Ernest Dickinson for assistance rendered; also to Mr. Harry B. Stirling, in his original lighting effects, which added so much to the enjoyment of the evening. The Cadet orderlies detailed performed their duties capably. Lieut. Col. Gibson was not able to attend at the last moment, as also his adjutant, but the Regiment was represented by Lieut. Strang, Mrs. Strang accompanying her husband.

MAPLE

The Methodist church was well-filled on Sunday evening at the services under the auspices of the W. M. S. A very impressive sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Daniel, of Jefferson, and special music was rendered by the choir. An Easter thank-offering of $54 was given.

Mrs. (Rev.) A. Lunan gave an address at the annual meeting of the W. M. S. at the home of Mrs. W. O. McDonald. At the close of the meeting afternoon tea was served.

The two houses that were offered for sale on Saturday were subject to a reserve bid and were not sold.

Easter services were held in St. Andrew's and St. Stephen's churches on Sunday.

Mrs. J. B. McLean is in St. John's Hospital Toronto, after undergoing a serious operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McDonald and Mr. Gordon McDonald, of Toronto, were visiting friends here over the week-end.

Preparations are being made for the building of several dwelling houses here during the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rose received congratulations from their friends, on Saturday, it being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding.

Conservative Management

THE Sterling Bank has always been decidedly conservative in its management — a policy which has resulted in our present strong position of security.

The returning of better business conditions in Canada, therefore, finds us ready to offer credit to sound firms whose management is conservative.
