The choir of the Presbyterian Church repeated the sacred cantata "From Olivet to Calvary," at the evening service last Sunday. There was a large attendance and both music and singing were greatly enjoyed.

The so-called daylight saving goes into force in Toronto Sunday morning. That means that Metropolitan cars will also start one hour earlier than at present. Apparently, in Richmond Hill you can "go as you please."

An exchange points out that even a hen has a better idea about advertising than some of our storekeepers. It says: "A duck lays an egg and lets it go at that. A hen lays one and advertises the fact. Hence the demand for Hens' Eggs."

Next week, dialogues such as the following will be in order:

Jim—At what hour do you start work?
Jack—At seven o'clock.
Jim—Do you mean old time or new time?
Jack—O, give us a rest!

Holy Communion will be observed in the Methodist Church next Sabbath morning. Rev. N. Wellwood will deliver the address. This will be followed by Reception Service and Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. All are welcome. Members specially requested.

A vacancy having occurred, by the resignation of Mr. Ramer, a meeting of the electors of U. S. S.—Richmond Hill, Markham and Vaughan will be held in the Council Chamber, Monday, May 12, at 7:30 p. m. to nominate a candidate for the position of Public School Trustee.

Our citizens should remember that the Village Caretaker will make his rounds, commencing tomorrow (Friday) morning when he will take away garbage such as tins, crockery, etc. Have same placed on the street in barrels or boxes, in front of your residence. Now is a good time to start to make a clean village.

The Jones Lumber Co. have sold their property on Arnold Street, to O. M. Palmer & Sons, and about June 1st will move their office and entire plant to larger and more commodious quarters located on Centre Street about a block and a half east of Yonge Street. New sheds are being constructed, and a considerable amount of lumber and other building material is already on the site.

Rural Drama

Masonic Hall was crowded Thursday evening when the Y. P. L. of Victoria Square gave the play "Between two lives," under the auspices of the Richmond Hill Y. P. L. The parts were well taken, and the young people of Victoria Square are to be congratulated on their natural ability in sustaining the characters they represent. Music was given between the acts, and Miss Brown contributed a recitation. A very lively entertainment closed with the National Anthem.
