

Richmond Hill citizens are requested to put forward their time-pieces one hour, before they go to bed Sunday night.

Persons interested in the Spring Exhibition should get a Prize List from the Secretary, Mr. James McLean, Arnold Street.

Victoria Square Amateur Players will give that rural drama, "Between two Lives," in the Town Hall, Markham, Saturday evening of this week.

Mr. W. H. Pugsley, motored with relatives to Paris, on Saturday, spent the week-end with his nephew, Mr. W. A. Glass, and family, and returned Monday.

The Village Churches will hold their services next Sunday as usual on standard time, but the following Sundays on the new time. Schools will go on new time.

A meeting of the Ladies Bowling club will be held at the home of Mrs. A. G. Savage, Friday afternoon, May 16th, at 8 o'clock standard time. Election of officers.

The Right Reverend J. Fielding Sweeney, D. D., Bishop of Toronto, will administer the Holy Rite of Confirmation in St. Mary's Church (C. of E.) on Thursday, May 15, at 8 p. m. All welcome.

By June 1st we have to move our office and entire plant to our yard at Centre Street East, and in order to avoid extra handling are offering some special bargains in building materials — THE JONES LUMBER CO.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Smith announce the engagement of their second daughter, Amy Agnes, to Mr. Robert Mansbridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Mansbridge, of Richmond Hill, the wedding to take place in June.

first baseball game in the Hills-Square League will be played in the Park here to-morrow, Friday evening, commencing at 6 o'clock, standard time. Victoria Square will play the Richmond Hill team. Make a good start and win the cup.

Mr. Geo. Cowie, Monday evening, was nominated for the position of Trustee for the Union Public School Section. As there was only one nomination, the Village Clerk declared Mr. Cowie elected to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Mr. Ramer.

At the last meeting of the Village Council it was brought to their notice, that several individuals had transgressed the new building by-law. It would be well for all concerned to remember that applications must be made, and thus save themselves expense and trouble.

Meals will be served by the ladies of the Presbyterian church, in the Arena on the Fair Grounds, on the 24th of May, and not in the basement of the church as usual. The noon meal will be fifty cents as usual, and the banquet in the evening, seventy-five cents. A. A. BOYLE, Secretary. 46-47

The regular monthly meeting of Thornhill Horticultural Society will be held Tuesday evening, May 20, at 8 o'clock, in the new school building. It is expected that Mrs. Graves, District Secretary of Women's Institutes, will give an address on "Gardening." Visitors and strangers will be welcome.

METHODIST CHURCH

Services in the Methodist Church on May 18th, will be in charge of the Minister.

Morning Theme—"Troubled yet undisturbed."

Evening Theme—"Joseph—The Dreamer."

"Get out of the daily grind. Go to Church on Sunday."

Mr. Dunlop's Gift

The rose trees have been delivered to the secretary. Each member of the Horticultural Society is entitled to two trees, and may get them by calling for them. Let there be no delay in this as the sooner the trees are planted the better for them.

The Executive of the Horticultural Society takes this opportunity of thanking Mr. Dunlop, on behalf of the members, for his exceeding generosity in donating the roses for distribution.

Anyone who has neglected to pay this year's membership fee may receive his trees upon payment. Call to-day. M. HUME, Sec.

MAPLE

There was a fair attendance at the concert in the Community Hall last Thursday evening. The Marlscourt Orchestra of fifty pieces rendered excellent music, and several choruses were sung by the Choral class.

Rev. D. Norman, of Japan, and Miss Kirkpatrick, of Toronto, addressed the Methodist S. S. on Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Hugh Matheson, of Toronto, preached in St. Andrew's Church on Sunday morning. During the service, kindly reference was made to the late Rev. Dr. Carmichael, who for 47 years took the service in this Church on the second Sunday in May.

The remains of Mrs. Peter McKay, daughter of the late Wm. Craddock, were interred in the Maple cemetery last Saturday morning.
