few vacancies for Boots and Shoes. The following qualifications are necessary: they must be down at heel; perforated or badly-worn soles; gaping seams; detached toe-caps, etc.; as a matter of fact the more dilapidated their appearance the better chance they have of filling one of these vacancies, which I might mention are only open to transients.

I sincerely hope that my patrons, and others, will, on perusing this notice, make up their minds to come as early as their circumstances will permit so as to avoid the crowd. In sympathy with my patrons, and others who abhor crowds, I am having regard to their nervous apprehensions by assuring them that one of our worthy County Constables will be present, weather and other conditions being favorable (?) to see that no rowdyism or other unseemly conduct occurs that is likely to bring on an attack of nervous prostration. It is hoped that even those who are suffering from heart weakness, or kindred complaints, may have the courage to come to the Rolfe Shoe Repair Store, where the vacancies referred to above are continually occurring.

Your health and your footwear alike will receive the full consideration of
