Anyone Can Run A Paper

Country Editor Tells How the Trick is Done.

Cannington, May 21—"Anyone can run a newspaper," says the Cannington Gleaner editor, who proceeds in the current issue:

"All you have to do is to buy a plant, know how to run it, front end to back end. Then hustle around and get copy. First you must get all the local and general news. You will find the local news spread almost everywhere about the townsite, and you are expected to be most everywhere to land the fleeting items. And another important thing—you must, or are supposed to, make an effort to collect the money, pay the bills and keep everybody in good humor. And the most important is never to leave out of the paper the name of the important ones, and also never to put them in when they should be left out. You will learn this trick after you have been bawled out a few times."

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Mackie and family wish to thank their friends for the kindness and sympathy extended in their recent sad bereavement in the loss of a husband and father.

Presbyterian W. M. S.

The regular monthly meeting of the W. M. S. was held in the Manse, on Thursday, May 22nd.

A most interesting and instructive talk was given by Mrs. Taylor, (at present home from Central India,) on the "Ingatherings of the Christian Church in India."

In her talk Mrs. Taylor, made the following quotations: 1st "That in these 'Ingatherings' or 'Mass movements.'" The Church finds her greatest opportunity. 2nd That this is the Church's most pressing problem. 3rd That it is the Church's most Glorious Proof of Power.

Mrs. Taylor told us of the great loneliness of the young converts in India, of the willingness of these converts to suffer, and of their great belief in the power of Prayer.

Mrs. Taylor told us many interesting incidents in her personal experience among these people and how great the numbers were ready to receive the wonderful story of Jesus and his love, but how few the laborers were. She asked us to realize their great need, and to do our share in sending out "Laborers."

A solo was sung by Miss Margaret Ireland.
