INQUIRIES SOLICITED

HEAR PREMIER KING

All roads will lead to Markham Village, on Saturday, the 16th of August. That is the date when the new constituency of North York will give a demonstration and picnic in honor of its worthy representative, Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King. With fine weather the visit of the Prime Minister to the new constituency will doubtless bring a gathering of people of all shades of politics that will do credit to Canada's First Statesman.

Apart from politics the electors will feel inclined to join in a warm welcome to the Premier of this great Dominion. The Liberal Government has held the reins of office for the past two years. Come out and hear the great questions of the day discussed on the 16th of August.

A CHAMPION OF THE SENATE

Seldom is a man found in either political party who will come out openly, and champion the Canadian Senate. It is generally admitted that this body is as partisan as is the House of Commons, and that its mission is to help its own party out of difficulties, and to put stumbling blocks in the way of opponents.

Wallace Nesbit, K. C., however, is a great believer in the the Senate, and says that the Premier, MacKenzie King, will make the mistake of his life if he ventures to interfere with it. Mr. Nesbit says that England made a great mistake in weakening the House of Lords, and warns Canada against making a similar mistake. Mr. Nesbit admits that the electors are against the Senate, but he looks upon the popular voice as "only mob clamor."

DEATHS

MAPES—At the residence of his sister, Mrs. Thomas Frisby, Victoria Square, on Sunday, July 27, 1924, C. F. Mapes.
Funeral to Baker Hill Cemetery, Tuesday.

Vellere

Although in his 80th year, the sudden death of Dugald McDonald, a life-long resident of this place, on Monday of this week, came as a surprise. Deceased had been tax collector for the west part of the Township of Vaughan for nearly 30 years. The funeral to Maple Cemetery yesterday was largely attended. On the casket were several floral tributes including a spray from Vaughan Council.

MAPLE

Ice cream and cake will be served on St. Stephen's Church, Maple, on the evening of August 11. Please accept this as an invitation.

At the Beach Carnival held during Fort Elgins old Home week, July 20, 21, 22, Rupert Jackson, of Maple, won the 100 yard open for all race.

Concert and Dance in Community Hall, Maple, Wednesday evening, the 6th of August. The artists will include the Gamblin trio; the two Bobs; James Kelly and Little Mickey, the Juvenile Comedian. Marian Herrington, pianist and vocalist. Concert at 8 p. m., dance at 10.

THORNHILL

Patterson Lodge, A. F. & A. M., No. 268, Thornhill, will picnic at Bond Lake Park, Saturday of this week. The friends are requested to leave their baskets in the Pavilion at the south west corner of the park where a committee of ladies will arrange the supper tables. Races for 6 year olds up to 16; open races; baseball game (soft ball), Married vs Single men, etc.

The Thornhill Horticultural Society will, on the 6th of September, hold their Annual Exhibition of flowers and vegetables. The prize list shows good prizes for adults and juveniles, including a number of specials. Exhibitors are requested to read the rules and regulations carefully.

Poultry Culling Demonstrations

The Department of Agriculture has arranged several Poultry Culling Demonstrations to be held during the week of August 4th, in York County.

People who are interested in Poultry would be well advised to attend one of the demonstrations. A poultry expert will be in attendance and after the lecture on Culling, will take up some of the troubles of Poultry Raisers.

Below is a list of the points at which demonstrations will be held:

Willmot Riddell, Vachell, Georgina, August 5, 3 p. m.
Percy Wood, Belhaven, North Gwillimbury, August 6, 3 p. m.
Jacob Smith, Queensville, East Gwillimbury, August 6, 7 p. m.
