

High and Public school books, and supplies at The Liberal Store.

The Board of Education will meet next Monday evening, September 8.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sanderson have gone on a two weeks visit to London, Ont.

Newmarket Council has struck its tax rate for this year—43 mills on the dollar.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Rankin went to Pickering Village Saturday, to spend the week end with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Browning and family of Sharon, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wideman, Elgin Mills.

Miss Dorothy Dunlop was awarded first prize for best decorated private motor car at The Canadian National on Saturday.

Dr. G. W. Law, of Grand Rapids, Mich., is erecting a monument in memory of his father and mother, the late Mr. and Mrs. Abram Law.

Both the Public and the High School re-opened Tuesday morning. The enrollment was 300 in the Public school and 173 in the High School.

Mr. Morrison, acting manager of the Sterling Bank, has been absent on leave, and was relieved by Mr. Harry Morden, the former Branch manager.

Richmond Hill reverted to standard time Tuesday morning of this week. Some of our citizens got so accustomed to early rising they seemed to think that the Town Bell would never ring.

A meeting of the various committees that had the Mackenzie King picnic in charge at Markham, will meet in the Council Chamber here Thursday evening next, Sept. 11 to wind up the business.

One of the Cadet miniature rifles is missing and Capt. Morden would be very grateful if the Cadet having same would turn same in at once to Cadet Capt. Bert Grant, as all stores are now being accounted for.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Richmond Hill, announce the engagement of their youngest daughter, Violet Lorene, to Mr. Cecil Everett Sharpless, of Richmond Hill, the marriage to take place the third week in September.

The Women's Institute wish to thank those who so generously contributed flowers for the Women's Institute Dept., and Tea Room at The Canadian National Exhibition. After doing duty there, the flowers were sent to the hospital.

The engagement is announced of Winnifred (Ted) younger daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Aikenhead, to Douglas, only son of Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Gilchrist, both of Toronto. The marriage to take place the latter part of September.

Norman Biggs, 8 years of age, son of Mr. James Biggs, a well-known cattle raiser of Edgeley, Vaughan Township, was awarded first prize for his handsome little Jersey calf, "Silver Star," at the Toronto National Exhibition last week.

Mr. John H. Dunlop was one of the speakers at The Toronto Exhibition luncheon on Flower Day. A city paper stated that the splendid floats Saturday night helped to transform Exhibition City into a floral fairyland, and were witnessed by 25,000 people in front of the Grand Stand.

It has been reported to us that, at least, two families on Church street have had their gardens of corn and other vegetables almost completely destroyed by a cow that is allowed to wander around the streets in the night. In all probability, the cow's conscience does not trouble her, but the owner ought to feel ashamed of himself.

Mr. and Mrs. Littlefield, of Toronto, and their in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Perry Endean, and other relatives, returned the latter part of the week, after a very pleasant ten day holiday at Ronquin Park. Mr. Endean had the pleasure of catching the largest bass taken from the waters of the Park during the season. The fish weighed 5½ lbs, and measured 22 inches.

The South York County S. S. Association are arranging for a Council of Sunday School workers and officers on Wednesday afternoon and evening, September 17, in the Newton Brook Methodist Church. The afternoon session will be given by the Home Dept. work, under the direction of Miss Laine, of the head of the O.R.E.C., followed by discussion. The evening subject will be "Ten years of the speaker, Rev. Ernest Mas, who will show the absolute necessity of Government control (failure of Quebec and British Columbia) in cordially invited. All are invited. 10-11

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks to those who generously contributed to the decoration of the Canadian National Exhibition Floral day parade, on Saturday. Also to say that the parade was successful from a spectacular standpoint, the large number of magnificent floats and the interest shown making the day one of the most successful of the week. On behalf of the Community. J. H. DUNLOP, Chairman.

Annual Flower Show

The Eleventh Annual Fall Flower Show of the Richmond Hill Horticultural Society will be held on the afternoon and evening of Wednesday, Sept. 10th, in the new arena. Townsfolk and their friends are most cordially invited to attend between 3 and 9 o'clock p.m.

Members kindly note. It is the aim of the society to make this the largest and best flower show ever held here, hence each member must co-operate to his or her utmost by bringing produce of every class available to swell the exhibits. Please read 'Rules and Regulations' on Prize List and carefully endeavour to follow them. Especially note—time to make entries, No. 12; time to bring exhibits No. 3; and rules governing the above Nos. 7 and 11. Also these rules likewise control special prize list. Exhibitors supply vases etc., for their own exhibits but paper plates will be provided for the arranging of vegetables and fruits.

Juvenile entries must be made on the afternoon of Tuesday to the secretary who will arrange with the principal of the public school to call and receive these at school, also as the show this year is on a schoolday, to arrange time of placing exhibits on Wednesday. Entries of "Grafting on Fruit Trees" (special prize No. 13) should be made on Monday. President, Geo. Gee, Secretary, Mary Hume.
