

Christmas is coming—use the coupon in Porter's ad, on this page, and be ready for it.

Toronto and the Metropolitan Railway revert back to standard time next Sunday.

Take notice that the last day for filing appeals with Mr. Hume, clerk, is Saturday, Sept. 27.

Mrs. Murray Woods, of Maple, has returned from visiting her daughter in Highland Park, Mich.

Newmarket Era—Mr. and Mrs. Will Tyndall, of Richmond Hill, visited her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. Kirby, for the week end.

Mr. A. M. Pollitt has located his studio at the home of Mrs. Whelan in front of the Presbyterian Church. He will teach on Saturday.

Mrs. A. L. Phipps and Mrs. T. F. McMahon were judges on children's work at the Horticultural Exhibition in Aurora on Saturday.

We regret that owing to large advertisements re Voters' Lists in our paper this week, some regular advs., report of Flower Show, etc., are crowded out till next week.

At the special services at the Presbyterian Church on Sunday next, Mr. Ayling will sing "The Lord is my Light." He will be remembered by his good work in the Cantata.

The powers that be are certainly making it difficult for the bus men to operate on Yonge street. The restrictions and charges will, in all probability, drive them off the road altogether.

Mr. and Mrs. David Green and Miss Ada Flanders, of N. H., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bowes. On their return home Mrs. Arthur Bowes motored with them to Niagara Falls and Buffalo.

The following are the questions to be answered by the electors on the 23rd of October:

1—"Are you in favor of the continuance of the Ontario Temperance Act?"

2—"Are you in favor of the sale as a beverage of beer and spirituous liquor in sealed packages under government control?"

Sleeve lengths of 100 average customers—Your sleeve length is different from that of your neighbor, so too is the measurement across your shoulders, and so too are the most of the measurements of your apparel. If you want to be well dressed and look your best at all times you should therefore go to E. R. Fortner who specializes in individualized tailoring for both women and men. He will give you a tailor hand-made garment. No factory work.

NEWTON BROOK

The Newton Brook Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. Harry Smith, Wednesday of last week. There was a good turn out, and a programme of work for the coming fall was well mapped out. The ladies gave a good supper at the Sunday School Conference last evening, and will give a supper and entertainment on Tuesday, the 7th of October, after the Harvest Home Sunday.

On Thursday afternoon the Zion Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Wilkinson. A dozen or more enthusiastic ladies were in attendance, and much work was arranged. Zion Harvest Home Services, afternoon and evening, will take place on Sunday, Sept. 28, and on the Monday following the Ladies Aid will give a supper and entertainment for which the Petch Concert Company have been secured.

There was a full attendance of trustees and some ladies at a meeting to discuss the best plans for the future. It was decided to repair the parsonage, and a committee was appointed to carry out the needed repairs forthwith. The kindness, attention and consideration of the trustees is greatly appreciated by the parsonage people.

VICTORIA SQUARE

Miss Evelyn Gee has returned from Bigwin Inn, after a stay of several weeks.

A splendid musical programme was rendered by the Washington Choir of Scarborough, in the Methodist church here on Sunday. The congregation enjoyed every selection. The members of the Washington Choir are to be congratulated upon the excellent manner in which every number was rendered. We wish them every success in their service of song.

Speaking on the rapidness with which some things travel, our Pastor on Sunday, brought a radiant smile to the face of one of his hearers, when he happened to remark on the exploits of Man-O-War. The smile however, was short lived. For he continued by saying, that some things travel even faster than the Man-O-War.

Completely ignoring all traffic regulations, the young people of Victoria Square, on Friday evening last, staged a rather unique gathering on the busiest intersection in town. About seventy persons gathered around a huge bon-fire, to be smeared well over with buttered corn. Hot-dogs and coffee also were served, after which several games, were played in which everyone could join. The gala affair ended with community singing. We are led to believe that another such event will take place on Saturday next. Many are clamoring for a more romantic setting. Consequently the "Devil's Elbow," on the fifth line, is the site chosen for the occasion.
