Home and school Club

All are invited to attend the H. & S.
Club Meeting, on Tuesday, Sept. 30th, at 8 p.m. in the Public School. Please remember the date and reserve that evening. A social hour will be spent after the meeting.

Returning Officers

Returning Officers for the three Yorks, for the coming O. T. A. plebiscite on the 23rd of October will be:

East York, James Labbett, 265 Woodbine Avenue.

North York, Fred A. Lundy, Newmarket.

West York, Miss Beatrice Howell, 2013 Davenport Road.

New Bus Line

Mr. W. H. Espey, who feels that he has been practically driven off Yonge Street by a prohibitive tax placed upon buses in competition with Hydro Radial Lines, will commence a bus service between Markham Village and Toronto next Monday. If the travelling public along Yonge Street were consulted in the matter they would vote Mr. Espey to stay, by a big majority. Does this not look like another example of "Government Control?"

Timely Advice

Fire Prevention Week will be from Oct. 5 to Oct. 11. The aim of Fire Prevention Week is to impress upon the public the enormity of fire waste, to the end that conditions may be improved and fire carelessness eliminated. Fires are caused in so many different ways it would be difficult to enumerate them. Be careful about that lighted cigar or cigarette especially when you are around a building where straw or commodities that are easily lighted. And this is the particular season of the year to see that stovepipes, furnaces and other heating apparatus are put in proper order for the coming cold weather.

Monthly Meeting

The monthly meeting of the W.M.S. was held in the choir room of the Presbyterian Church on Thursday, Sept.
18th. A paper on "Our Educational Missions in India," was given by Mrs.
McNab. The paper was most interesting and instructive. Mrs. McNeal brought before our notice one of the great benefits of our Educational Missions in the training of Christian Natives who were then better able to pass along the wonderful gospel message. The Bible being excluded from our schools was also mentioned and the question left for us to answer is:
"Is Education Enough? A duet "Let the Lower Lights be Burning," was sung by Mrs. R. S. Cooper and Miss C. L. Heise.

Sharpless-Smith

At the home of the bride's parents, Richmond Hill, on Wednesday, September 17th, at three o'clock, a quiet wedding was solemnized, when Violet Lorene, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith was united in marriage to Cecil Everett Sharpless, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H.
Sharpless, of Richmond Hill. The ceremony was performed by the Rev.
Dr. G. S. Smith, of Woodbridge, in the presence of the immediate relatives. The bride wore a becoming gown of pearl grey georgette with hat to match, and carried a sheaf of American Beauty roses. After a dainty luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Sharp-less left by motor on a trip to The Thousand Islands, the bride traveling in a tailored suit of dark brown velour with brown velvet hat and fox fur. On their return, they will reside in North Toronto.

Presbyterian Men Organize

A meeting of the men of the Presbyterian Church was held on Monday night, and a large number gathered to enjoy the unique event. Strange to say the women's services were not requisitioned in serving the dainty refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee. An excellent programme was provided in the form of an address by the pastor and musical selections by Messrs. Chaffey, Phipps, and Woodhead. An informal discussion ensued as to methods of making church fitlowship more enjoyable and profitable and it was decided to organize a men's society and hold a monthly meeting throughout the winter. A committee consisting of Messrs. Dunlop, Stewart, McNab, H. J. Innes, Dr. Langstaff, Chaffey and R. Cooper, will draft a programme and report to a later meeting.

Our Most Important Policy

One of the strongest aids to successful growth in business is a policy of conservative management. Our own advancement to a position of stability is evidence of this fact, for conservative management has always been our most important policy.

We invite discussions with firms whose management and finances are in keeping with our standards.
