Mr. and Mrs. T. F. McMahon attended the Golden Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McMahon, Aurora, Tuesday evening.

Mr. F. J. Mansbridge returned Saturday after a very pleasant visit with relatives and friends in England since he left of July.

The High School basket ball girls defeated Newmarket High School girls here Wednesday of last week, and the football teams played a tie.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Hill returned to town on Saturday from their cottage at Lake Joseph, where they spent nearly two months in rest and recreation.

The officers and members of Richmond Lodge are invited to Rising Sun Lodge, Aurora, Friday evening of this week, the occasion of the "official" visit of the D.D.G.M.

The Methodist Choir has been recruited to full strength, and will furnish special musical numbers in connection with the evening service on Sunday, October 5th.

The Imperial Bank of Canada are opening to-day a Branch in the office formerly occupied by Jones Lumber Company, directly back of the Lorne Block. This will be a temporary office while a permanent site is being selected.

The Eckardt Trophy has been won twice in succession by a Richmond Hill rink. Our players won it last year, and on the 12th of September, in a tournament at Stouffville, they again brought it home with them. The champion quartette are: A. G. Savage, P. C. Hill, A. E. Glass, and G. Willis, skip.

The local lodge of Orangemen passed the following resolution at a meeting in Richmond Hill last Friday evening: "Resolved, by the members of L.O.L., 2385, assembled here that we do endorse the Ontario Temperance Act, and we are willing to support the same at the forthcoming plebiscite on the 23rd of Oct."

When Mr. Mansbridge was in England a few weeks ago, he picked up a magazine containing a photograph of a group of Canadian soldiers at Bramshott Camp. He was curious to know if he could recognize any of the faces, when his eye fell upon the well-known face and figure of Lieut. Carl E. Hill, now Dr. Hill.

Miss Mary Paterson, a ten-year-old pupil of Miss Marguerite Boyle, of the "Homewood Hall" Studio, Thornhill, won the medal for public speaking in the Willowdale Arena at the School Fair. Several schools were represented, but little Miss Paterson, who represented York Mills, was the winner in a close and interesting contest.
