Death of Mrs. Scott

Monday's Globe records the death of Mrs. Mary Ellen Sanderson, widow of the late Alexander Scott, who died at her home in Barrie, last Sunday, in her 86th year. Mr. Scott was formerly publisher of The York Herald newspaper, and the family removed from Richmond Hill to Barrie where they became prominent as booksellers.

Anti-Unionists hold Meeting

Members of the Presbyterian Churches in this district attended a meeting in Newmarket on Tuesday to advance the anti-Union cause.
Rev. Walter Amos, of Toronto, acted as Chairman, and Rev. H. H. Horne, Rev. J. H. Borland and G. Tower Fergusson, of Toronto, addressed the gathering, explaining the act governing the union and telling those present how they may vote themselves out of Church Union.

Mr. Dean's Fire

The farm buildings of Mr. Geo. Dean at Headford were destroyed by fire last Thursday night, about 12 o'clock.
Five horses, a registered bull and most of the implements were burned. The fire started in the horse stable, so there was no chance to save the poor dumb animals. The cause of the fire seems a mystery. The loss which is heavy will be partially covered by insurance.
Mr. Dean has been unfortunate with fires, his barns having been burned several years ago by lightning.

Young People's Society

The Y. P. S. held an open meeting on Monday night, when Prof. E. S.
Moore, of Toronto, gave an illustrated talk on "The Origin of the Earth." The subject, though scientific, was treated in an untechnical way and was so clearly illustrated with a large number of lantern slides as to make it interesting to everybody. Miss Eileen Atkinson contributed a violin solo, which was also much enjoyed. Next week's meeting will be held on Tuesday night, and will be a Thanksgiving and Armistice evening. Male members will contribute the programme.

Plowmen's Banquet

At a banquet held Tuesday night in Hotel Richmond the prizes were presented to the winners in the recent plowing competition held by the York County Junior Farmers' Association.
This is the fifth annual competition this association has held, and it differs from others inasmuch as the competitors plow five acres on their own farms, the work being judged on Nov.
1, when the judges go around to the different farms. It was announced that competition this year had been especially keen, and that entries exceeded those of any other year.

Each donor presented the prize he offered, following the banquet, at which Dr. James L. Hughes, of Toronto, who was the main speaker, gave an interesting address on "Character-Building." Other speakers were: A.
J. H. Eckardt, A. A. Mulholland, Mr.
McGregor, James Dougharty, Reeve Baker of Whitechurch, Reeve Gohn of Markham, Deputy-Reeve Kellam of Vaughan; R. J. Rogers, Representative for York County, and others.

Among the special prizes were two silver tea services given by Mr. Eck-ardt, Harold Cowie and Fred Steckley being the winners.

Fred Timbers won as a special a Massey-Harris plow, and young Jim Urquhart, aged 14, won a special cash prize given the youngest competitor.

Class One, in sod—Harold Cowie, Milliken; Ross Ratcliffe, Stouffville; Percy Pattenden, Stouffville; Joe Por-rill, Richmond Hill.

Class Two, in stubble—Gordon Anderson, Edgeley; Earl Watson, Agin-court; Norman Steckley, Stouffville; Harry Pugh, Stouffville; M. Clendenning, Stouffville; Cecil Smith, Stouffville.

Class Three, single furrow, riding plow—Jack Frisby, Gormley; Jack Spence, Stouffville.

Class Four, tractors in stubble—Fred Steckley, Stouffville; Robert Brum-well, Milliken; Clare Sanderson, Unionville; Harry Ratcliffe, Stouffville; Haavey Usher, Edgeley; Fred Nicely, Stouffville; Paul Snider, Downsview.

Class Five, boys under 18—Fred Timbers, Stouffville; Alvin Woods, Woodbridge; Jim Urquhart, Wexford; Jack Smith, Downsview; Alvin Caseley, Markham; Richard Weatherill, Woodbridge.

The McGregor cup, for highest score, was won by Gordon Anderson, Edgeley.

The largest number of entries was handed in by Norman Steckley, of Stouffville.
