

Richmond Hill Methodist Sunday School will hold their annual Concert and Christmas Tree on Tuesday, December 28th.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Weiland, of Oakville, spent the week-end at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Tuck.

New subscribers to The Liberal will receive the balance of this year free. Send along $1.50 and receive your home paper to January 1, 1926.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Beynon and family, of Jefferson, left Monday for Florida, by motor. Mr. Beynon expects to be back in a couple of months to continue his business. The family will remain during the winter.

Young People's League in the school room of the Methodist church on Monday evening, November 17th, at 8 o'clock. A programme which is different. Especially interesting. Good music. Everybody welcome.

Mrs. (Hon.) G. S. Henry, of Oriole, will open the Bazaar in the Presbyterian church, on the 22nd of November. There will be a sale of hand-painted china and other novelties. Admission free. Tea served from 4 to 6 o'clock, 25 cents.

We are glad to be able to report that Mr. C. H. Cowie, proprietor of the Richmond Hill Dairy, is home again after ten days stay in Wellesley Hospital where he was operated on for appendicitis. The patient is still in bed, but is improving nicely.

The Men's Association of the Presbyterian Church will hold their first public meeting on Thursday evening of next week (20th inst), when Prof. R. S. Knox, of Toronto, will give an address on "Scottish Humor." Everybody is invited. Silver collection.

After the church services Sunday morning a service was held at the Memorial in front of the Public School. Reeve Trench presided, and Revs. Batterby, McIntosh, Warren, and Wellwood took part in the service. Selections, appropriate for the occasion, were sung.

Many of our citizens came home from Toronto, Tuesday evening, wearing poppies. It is said that 400,000 people in the City wore the emblem that has come to be the symbol of those who sleep the last long sleep in Flanders Fields. About $40,000 will be realized for the veterans on Tag Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hoover, Centre Street, East, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, on November 10th. They were the recipients of heartiest congratulations, and good wishes from many friends and neighbors. They received many tokens, in remembrance of the day, among which was a purse of gold from their immediate relatives.

The "Sunnysides" Girls' dance, held in the Masonic Hall on Friday evening last, was a decided success in every particular, and a nice snug bank account will gather added interest for the next six or seven months. Len. Clement and a number of the members of the Hope team patronized the affair, which was largely attended, all enjoying themselves immensely. McDonald's Orchestra furnished the music.

Seven young men, members of the Presbyterian Young People's Society, gave interesting and instructive papers relating to Thanksgiving and Armistice Day at the regular meeting of the Society held on Tuesday evening. Every phase of thought relating to the two closely-associated days of this week (Monday and Tuesday) was well brought out by the following speakers: Kenneth Blanchard, Howard Atkinson, Allan McNab, James McLean, David Stirling, Harold Little, and Robert Marsh. Such meetings and themes cannot fail to prove helpful to speakers and listeners alike.

The Carrville Cider Mill will close for this season, Saturday of this week—November 15.

During the two minutes that work was supposed to cease on Armistice Day, a man with hat removed, and bowed head, stood before the memorial opposite the Public School. No doubt he was a "returned" man, whose mind was on the awful days during the war.

Methodist Services

Services in the Methodist Church next Sunday will be conducted by the Minister. Theme of evening discourse, "Open thy Window Eastward." A welcome for all.

METHODIST CHURCH

The Church was tastefully decorated last Sunday with grain, roots, shrubs, vegetables, flowers, and fruit. The sermons, morning and evening, were very much enjoyed. Rev. Dr. Daniels preached in the morning, and Rev. Mr. Kell, of Richvale, in the evening. Remember the supper and concert to be given at the Church, this, Thursday evening. Supper from 6 to 8 o'clock. The concert will be in the hands of the Sherbourne Street Methodist Church, assisted by the Richmond Hill choir.

Hallowe'en at The Loyal True Blue and Orange Home

The Board of Management, Matron, and inmates of the above Home are very grateful to Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Herrington for the kindly thought of giving the children a Hallowe'en outing. An auto ride is a rare treat for these little ones, so when Mr. Herrington suggested asking a few friends to combine with him, words could hardly express the excitement at the home. Permission was given to wear false faces, and a very amusing picture they made in their Hallowe'en attire, Negroes, Indians, Brides, Cooks etc. among the disguises chosen.

From the home to High Park, Sunnyside and points of interest made up a good 4-hour drive, and thanks are due to the following generous friends who evidently did not spare themselves or cars: Miss I. Scott, Mrs. H. Murphy, Messrs. Baldoock, Cook, Cowie, Dunlop, Endean, Graham, Herrington, Innes, Lunan, Legge, Lasher, Mills, Mansbridge, Hill, Savage, Sheardown, Palmer, Ramer, and Wright.

The evening was also a merry one. Prizes provided by the Bowling Club (who also sent decorations for the Recreation Hall) of Richmond Hill were competed for—three prizes for the most original disguise for girls and three for the boys. Madge Coulter, dressed as an old lady very lame, 1st; Emma Finlay and Evelyn Bell, special prizes, bride and groom, 2nd; Annie Murphy, boy, George Murphy, first prize as cook; Harold McHugh, 2nd prize, little black girl; George Letten, 3rd prize, Turk. Mrs. Herrington and the Matron were the judges. A very hearty vote of thanks was given the kind friends at Richmond Hill for the generous supply of candy, fudge, and apples received.

Yea, it is indeed more blessed to give than receive.

Making Sure of a Harbor Berth!

Capt. H. F. Halifax of S.S. Pomeroy

As the Great Lakes grain carriers unload in Montreal harbor, waiting their turn in endless procession, the big ocean-going steamships line up at adjacent berths to fill their holds with the same grain as it pours in a golden stream from the spouts of the harbor's efficient carrier system. So great is the pressure on the Port's facilities that the Lake Captains telephone by Long Distance from far-away lake ports to reserve accommodation for unloading when they shall reach Montreal. From January 1st to September 30th this year, Montreal exported 22,000,000 bushels more grain than the seven next important ports of America combined. The total was over 99,000,000 bushels.
