OPEN EVENINGS

Rink Opening

The Richmond Hill Skating Arena will be open for skating Wednesday evening, Thursday afternoon and evening, and Saturday evening of this week. Band in attendance on each occasion. Come and renew acquaintanceship.

Nomination Meeting

Let us hope to see a large attendance at Nomination Meeting in the Masonic Hall Monday evening. So far there appear to be no indications of any change in the Village Council, but as there are vacancies on the Board of Education, these vacancies will have to be filled by new blood. The Women's Institute and other women feel that their sex should be represented on the Board of Education by at least one member. Come out and hear the speeches.

Hockey Pictorial

The second edition of the Hockey Pictorial is on the market, more complete and up-to-date than the original edition, which was received with such acclaim by followers of the great winter sport. Most favorable comments have been passed upon the publication by sport writers the continent over, and the general opinion as expressed by players and scribes is that no more comprehensive or handsome book in the sporting line was ever printed. A feature that should possess a marked appeal not only to the puck-chasers of the present, but to old timers, are the many group pictures of the champion teams, dating back to the early history of hockey. The new edition not only contains the history of hockey in Canada, but covers the history of the game in the United States also, with 300 handsome engravings of Canadian and American teams, and is right up to the minute in every respect. Any further information pertaining to the book can be obtained by writing to the Hockey Pictorial, 84 Victoria St., Toronto, Ont.

THORNHILL

The concert given by the Young Men's Bible Class in the Methodist Church on Wednesday evening of last week was a decided success in every respect. The church was crowded and everyone was well pleased with the programme. The chief feature was "The Great Matrimonial Trial," in which all the parts were taken creditably by the members of the class. The local hits by the jury were much appreciated. The class was ably assisted by Mrs. A. M. Rice, Miss Marguerite Boyle, and Mr. Stanley Woodhead. The public school closed on Friday afternoon for the Christmas vacation. The pupils gave a short programme in the junior room. A large number of the parents and others were present and expressed themselves as having enjoyed the entertainment. After the programme the distribution of gifts took place. The principal was presented by his pupils with a handsome desk set and an address, and many other beautiful presents. The assistant, Miss Effie Bird, was also the recipient of a large number of presents from her pupils. Mr. J. Breaker, and Mr. J. R. Campbell were present and gave short addresses.

NEWTON BROOK

On Thursday evening, December 18th, the Sunday School Entertainment of the Methodist church took place. The church was filled to fullest capacity. The large platform was beautifully decorated. The different parts were well taken, from the tiny tots with their dolls and lullaby songs and "young roosters" with vim and strut, to the adults with their more difficult recitations, tableaux and dialogues. It was a happy night for all and in a resolution, presented by Mr. J. R. Smith and Mr. H. B. Schmidt, Mr. Goulding, the Superintendent and his helpers were most heartily praised and thanked for their good work. Rev. E. R. Young presided. On Sunday morning the Sunday School Scholars took charge of the singing, rendering two beautiful choruses and little Miss Thomas sang a solo very attractively.

In the evening the Choir gave some excellent Christmas music, singing Christmas carols and Mrs. Lewis a beautiful solo. Next Sunday morning more Christmas music will be sung and a musical trio of organ, piano and violin will be rendered. This choir is making excellent progress under the leadership of Mr. Walker, of Toronto.

The Sunday school room was filled at the Fireside Service last Sunday evening, when Mr. Young exhibited some of the world's masterpieces of the Holy Babe and His mother and of the early life of Jesus. Next Sunday evening "The Story of the Reformation" will be told, and special music will be given by the Choir.
